Internet viewing of unseen treasures

TREASURES which have so far remained hidden from the public since they were discovered as part of the Staffordshire Hoard are set to go on display for the first time.

Previously unseen items will be revealed to the world via the internet tomorrow (Friday). Two experts will discuss the finds, discovered in 2009 by metal detecting enthusiast Terry Herbert, on an online forum.

Curators Dr David Symons and Dr Morn Capper will take questions from around the world for an hour from 4pm after Birmingham City Council organised the event.

Leisure boss, city councillor Martin Mullane, said: "From day one, the global interest in the Hoard has been phenomenal."

Remarkable

"We thought it would be a great idea to set aside some time where two of our experts can answer questions and update the public on this remarkable story."

"We'll also be sharing fantastic new images of a number of Hoard artefacts for the very first time."

To join the webchat visit <http://birminghamnewsroom.com/2012/03/join-our-staffordshire-hoard-webchat/> at 4pm tomorrow.

People can also submit questions on Twitter using the hashtag #hoardchat

City's Hoard tribute plan

AN iconic monument celebrating the discovery of the Hoard could be installed in Lichfield.

Businessman Robert Carr is behind proposals for city centre tribute.

Detailed drawings are being drafted, with internationally-known sculptor Peter Walker lined up to make the monument.

Mr Carr, who wants to create a 15ft sculpture, said: "It will be a major attraction in the city."

GAS ALERT AFTER THEFT OF PIPING

Report by Tim Spiers

A RETIRED couple came close to disaster when thieves stole a copper pipe from their house, causing the property to fill with gas.

Shirley and Donald Clark were in their Cheslyn Hay home when they heard loud banging coming from the side of their house, where the gas supply pipe was located.

By the time Donald ventured outside to see what was happening thieves had fled with the thick copper pipe, which had been installed outside in 2007. The 75-year-old had protested at the time that it was 'an accident waiting to happen'.

Shirley rushed to turn off the meter off and heard a loud hissing noise, with gas coming back inside the house. The gas oven was on and Shirley believes if they had been out the whole street could have gone up.

"If it had happened at night or if we were on holiday, or even if someone walking past had lit a cigarette, goodness knows what would have happened," said Shirley, aged 73. "The whole street could have gone up."

"We had the gas oven on at the time - I opened the door to turn it off and it was hissing and coming back into the house. "The smell was horrendous and we had to open all the windows in the house to get rid of it."

The police were called but the thieves had long since gone, with the whole ordeal taking just 10 ten minutes.

Shirley added: "Donald said at the time that putting the pipe there was dangerous, but apparently that's where most of them are put these days."

"We want to warn people to be on their guard. It's unbelievable that it's happened but thank goodness we were here."

Scrap

The couple went without hot water and heating for five days before a replacement pipe was installed inside the property.

Staffordshire Police spokesman Sarah Davidson said the force was working with other authorities to target those involved in illegal scrap metal dealings.

She said: "Police were called to a report of a theft from an address in Cheslyn Hay, at around 3pm on Wednesday March 14. An officer attended and found that gas piping had been stolen."

"The gas company were also requested to attend to ensure the safety of the occupants and nearby residents."

"Staffordshire Police works alongside colleagues from The Vehicle and Operator Services Agency (VOSA) and the local authorities to target those involved in carrying of scrap metal to ensure they are operating legally."

"They also pay regular visits to scrap yards to offer advice and encourage them to report any suspicious visitors or vehicles."

"Smartwater' has also been rolled out in many areas of the county, this is a substance which can be painted onto metal and gives each address a unique DNA style profile so it can be traced back to its owner."

"It remains invisible and stays on the item forever."

The British Gas website advises anyone experiencing a gas leak in their property to open all windows and doors, not to turn electrical switches on or off, put out any naked lights and don't do anything that could cause an ignition.

Historic building 'cannot be razed'

CHURCH leaders have confirmed an historic Rugeley building will not be knocked down as it is Grade II listed.

Residents were concerned for the future of The Old Chancel - the former site of St Augustine's Church and the town's oldest building - after it emerged it was in urgent need of renovation.

The church has no funds to restore it but the building, which dates back to the 12th century, cannot be demolished.

Dozens of people have expressed an interest in its future and close to 80 people attended a public meeting last week about its future.

Options

Church officials have previously said the building would cost £80,000 to repair.

The Old Chancel was the main church building until 1820. It was used as a Sunday School by the church up until the 1970s.

Rev Prebendary Michael Newman said: "Various options were discussed with roughly half of the people there in favour of restoring it as it stands and the other half wanting it for an alternative use."

"There was a great feeling that it is part of the landscape and part of the history of Rugeley as well as being an historical building."

I think there will be a further meeting on the matter."

Hendrie in at Scholars

ONE-TME England player Lee Hendrie has been snapped up by Chasetown and made his debut on Tuesday night.

The ex-Villa midfielder, aged 34, won his solitary cap against the Czech Republic in 1998.

He had been released by Kidderminster Harriers after a four-month non-contract spell and turned out for the Scholars in a 1-1 draw with Matlock town.

GERMAN ELECTRIC HEATING IS THE ANSWER

This incredible heating could be the answer to help beat the ever increasing energy costs and amazingly, it is not, gas or oil, or solid fuel - but electric! It's clean, Simple to install, Powerful, Economical, and no more servicing costs - EVER! All you need is a normal electricity supply and a plug socket and NO standard tariff like economy seven.

In Germany, Austria, Eastern Europe and even America, more and more people are choosing to heat their homes and offices with this very special form of electric heating in preference to gas, oil, LPG or any other form of conventional central heating or economy seven.

Here in the Midlands more and more of our customers are making that same decision and when you see this incredible heating for yourself, you could be next!

The heating looks just like a conventional radiator, but STOP! It is very, very different!

Put simply, the clunky central heating boiler needing constant servicing and replacement parts isn't the only choice any more!

Now you can choose to heat your homes, offices, extensions or conservatories with this incredible German heating which provides individual control over every single room without the need for a central control or space to site a boiler. Now the boiler space can also become a storage area!

Installation takes minutes and running is completely clean, there is no danger of leakage, no holes through walls, no floorboards up and no tradesmen trundling around the house wielding pipe cutters, hammers, wrenches and dirty work-boots. This incredible heating simply plugs in and that's it! Job Done! You can even do just one room or the whole house!

Diocese warns of clergy shortage

CHURCHES across the region face a chronic shortage of vicars – with 40 per cent of clergy in the Lichfield Diocese set to have retired by 2020.

The diocese also faces a funding crisis and may have to make more severe cuts if more money is not raised.

A report setting out the future of the diocese warns that retiring clergy may not be replaced because of funding problems and a lack of new blood. There are also concerns about an impending pensions crisis.

A total of 23 posts across the board are expected to go by the end of 2013.

The Bishop of Lichfield, the Rt Revd Jonathan Gledhill, revealed the challenges for 2012 and said with falling congregations nationally, parishioners needed to pull together. The Diocese of Lichfield serves just under two million people via 583 churches and 427 parishes.

It covers Staffordshire, Wolverhampton, Walsall, parts of Sandwell and Shropshire.

There are 294 full-time paid, stipendiary, clergy. The Bishop said pensions were eating into more of the diocese's expenses and the old pension surplus of £650,000 was due to run out next year.

"There is no indication as yet that parishes are willing and able to raise that extra money," he said. "In Lichfield, up to 40 per cent of our stipendiary clergy will have retired and possibly as many as 60 per cent if we include our non-stipendiary colleagues. At present, national projections suggest that the numbers of new clergy coming through will not bridge the gap," he warned.

The diocese is currently supported by the Church Commissioners which manage the Church's assets.

Health trust in apology on waiting time targets

HEALTH bosses have apologised after it was revealed that a quarter of patients in Stafford and Cannock are waiting longer for hospital treatment than Government targets.

Almost 3,000 of 11,500 people who should have been seen within 18 weeks were not seen in that time.

Laptops are proving a big success for children

PUPILS in Cannock are keeping abreast of modern technology after receiving a new set of laptops.

The laptops are being used by Key Stage 2 pupils at Five Ways Primary, in Heath Hayes, for ICT work and to carry out research in other subjects.

The laptops, which are on a trolley to enable them to be transported around the school, have been funded by the PTFA which raised £11,500 through a host of activities last year.

Michelle Walsh, head of the school in Langholm Drive, said the laptops had proved a big success.

She said: "We are delighted with the new laptops. The pupils are already using them throughout the curriculum and producing some fantastic work. I would like to thank the PTFA, and all the parents who supported their events for all their hard work."

Kerry Goodyear, PTFA chairman, said: "The laptops have made a huge difference to the teachers and pupils."

"It's great to see the money we raise being used on something the pupils really enjoy and benefit from."

Pupils are now being asked how they would like money raised this year to be spent.

The latest figures, published by the Department of Health also show that 150 patients have been waiting for more than a year.

They show that Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust, which runs the two hospitals, missed its referral-to-treatment target for 2,798 patients.

Trust bosses admitted they were facing a backlog last week but said data was being collated. The problem is not expected to be cleared until September.

Chief operating officer Maggie Oldham said: "The trust has agreed with commissioners a plan, which includes offering patients earlier dates with other providers and running additional outpatient clinics and operating at Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust."

Guidelines

"The number of patients waiting longer than 50 weeks has reduced significantly from the figures for January."

Under Department of Health guidelines, nine out of 10 patients should be treated within 18 weeks of referral to hospital.

At New Cross, Wolverhampton, 19,064 of 19,975 patients were seen within 18 weeks and at Walsall Manor, 9,838 of 10,414 have been seen within the target.

Bosses at Stafford are to hold another two public meetings. They will take place at Churchfield Junior School, Rugeley, from 6 to 8pm on April 17; and Walton Community Centre, Stone, from 6 to 8pm on April 19.

Book scheme? Take it as read

At the Five Ways Primary School readathon are Nikki Sims and daughter Jessica, aged nine, and Neal Thomas with daughter Ellouise, 11

CHILDREN in Heath Hayes thumbed through as many books as possible during a readathon.

Parents joined the youngsters for the event at Five Ways Primary in Langholm Drive.

The Readathon is aimed at fostering a love of reading and books and as part of the activities, each class in the school carried out activities related to a particular author's work. These included Roald Dahl, Michael Morpurgo and Dick King-Smith.

Children took part in artwork, story writing, drama and cooking sessions based on their designated author.

And, as part of a storywriting competition, pupils were set a homework task to write a tale on a particular theme.

Free kit on offer as league kicks off

FOOTBALLERS are being urged to sign up for a new six-a-side league in Cannock – with £250 worth of free kit on offer.

The league is kicking off on Monday nights at Cannock Cricket and Hockey Club as Leisure Leagues expands its operation. The company already runs popular Sunday and Wednesday night leagues at the same venue.

The new competition will feature 40 minute games. There is no entry fee and a free kit is available to all teams.

Delighted

The winners and runners-up will get the chance to play in the national six-a-side tournament.

League manager Sunny Mahal said: "We are continually taken aback by the appetite for football that the people of Cannock show and we are delighted to stage this league."

Each game will have a designated referee and all equipment is provided. Teams can keep track of fixtures, results and tables at www.leisureleagues.net

Growing printers on move

A CANNOCK printing firm has announced plans to expand. Kazoo is leaving its base in Cross Street, Bridgton, Cannock, for a unit at Cedarwood Business Park off Avon Road.

The new factory will boast 50 per cent more space – up to 4,500sq ft from 3,000 sq ft – with potential for further expansion. Two extra staff are being employed.

Turnover at Kazoo, which prints anything from business cards to large exhibition displays, has risen by between 15 and 20 per cent in each of the last two years.

Director Matt Nation said: "We started up eight years ago this month and things have gone really well. Four years ago we knocked through this unit into the one next door as we needed more space.

"We have been looking for somewhere to move for a while but couldn't find anything until now."

Mr Nation, who runs the business with fellow director Simon Talbot, added: "We are taking on one full-time employee and one apprentice, but we are building all the time.

"We have just launched a big marketing campaign, and we are looking to put new machinery in which will create more jobs."

Free holiday fun at park

FREE Easter activities are on offer in Hednesford Park as part of a campaign to keep crime and anti-social behaviour down.

The 'Play It Safe' initiative is being led by Staffordshire Fire and Rescue Service.

Activities include sessions with the Play Rangers on April 3 and 10, from 2-4pm, a visit from the mobile youth bus on March 23, 30 and April 12, an Easter egg hunt and clean-up on Hednesford Hills on April 13 and a Games in the Park afternoon.

Choir presents Easter musical

CANNOCK'S St Stephen's Choir is presenting two performances of a Praise musical for Easter.

The first free performance will be at Bethany Baptist Church, Chadsmoor, on Sunday March 25 at 6pm, followed at St Stephen's in Bideford Way, Cannock on Sunday April 1 at 6.30pm.

Tips on turning garden into wildlife haven

Wildlife Trust head of community and education, Graham Peake

A CONSERVATION charity is showing visitors how to transform their garden into a haven for wildlife.

Staffordshire Wildlife Trust is staging The Big Wildlife Garden Event at its Wolsley Centre headquarters on Saturday March 31 from 11am to 4pm.

A series of talks and demonstrations will give visitors the chance to pick up a host of practical tips from wildlife-friendly planting to vegetable growing. Experts will be on hand to answer questions and give advice.

Materials will also be provided for people to make a bug house for their garden, providing homes for the likes of bees, ladybirds and lacewings.

A host of hands-on activities will be on offer for youngsters, including bug-hunting and seed planting.

There will also be the chance to get involved in the trust's first ever sunflower growing competition.

The trust's head of community and education, Graham Peake said: "The way that people look after their gardens can make a huge difference to wildlife."

"The good news is that gardening for wildlife is easy, and at The Big Wildlife Garden Event we aim to give people loads of ideas and practical tips to take home with them and use in their gardens."

Staffordshire Wildlife Trust's Big Wildlife Garden Event supports a national campaign by The Wildlife Trusts and the Royal Horticultural Society to encourage people to make their gardens more welcoming for wildlife.

Cyclist 'gutted' over theft of bikes used for charity

A CYCLING enthusiast has voiced his anger at the boldness of thieves who made off with five valuable bicycles. The bikes are worth around £11,000 and used for charity races.

They were stolen from Gratley Croft, Huntington. Owner John Crossan said he was angry that the intruders walked into the house to snatch the keys for the garage – where the bikes were kept – while he and wife Maryam were inside.

John Crossan with one of the stolen bikes

The 46-year-old said pregnant Maryam was having a shower at the time and he was at his computer. He said his wife was now scared of being in the house alone.

Police have appealed for help in tracing the three mountain bikes and two road cycles. They were taken on March 12 between 7.45pm and 8.10pm.

Mr Crossan, a health and safety manager, said: "I'm gutted, the bikes meant a lot to me. But what's annoyed me more is how those responsible walked in, knowing we were inside."

He was due to take part in a 24-hour fund-raiser in May for children's cancer charity Clie Sergeant.

Taken were a blue and silver Bianchi Via Nirone road bike; a black Marin Mount Vision mountain bike; a silver Whyte 19 mountain bike; a blue Trek Madone 5.2SL full carbon hand-built road bike; a red and grey BMC Fourstroke 03 mountain bike, and a Troute Lite bike light. Call Staffordshire Police on 101, quoting incident number 812.

Leisure centres' Sussed sessions

TRIPS to Wolf Mountain, Baggeridge Country Park and the Forestry Commission are on offer for children as part of South Staffs Council's Sussed Easter holiday programme.

It runs from Penkridge and Cheslyn Hay leisure centres from April 2 and 13 for five-to-12-year-olds and includes gymnastics, football and trampolining.

Call 01922 417790 or on 01785 714152.

Staff can breathe easy

OFFICERS at Cannock Chase Council have been rewarded for their efforts in supporting staff who quit smoking.

The authority encourages its employees to be smoke free and as a result has won a Breathe Easy Award.

Councillor Muriel Davis, health and wellbeing Leader, said: "I am extremely pleased that Cannock Chase Council has achieved this award – it shows the council is creating a working environment which enables its employees to give up smoking."

John Bamford Primary School pupils Brooke Elcock, Becky Elston, Michele Tomassi, George Allen, Ellie Bromley and Phoebe Webster next to the vandalised pond

Pupils left distraught by vandals

YOUNGSTERS in Rugeley have been left heartbroken by vandals who wrecked a pond they had created in their school grounds.

The yobs pulled up wooden poles and piled them up in the pond, also knocking down plastic greenhouses and ruining plants.

Teachers at John Bamford School, in Crabtree Way, Etching Hill, broke the news to pupils at assembly.

Now the youngsters are determined to restore the 'forest school' area, created last October, to its former glory.

The spot is used by all of the school's 365 pupils for campfires, cooking, story telling, growing vegetables and learning forest skills and nature studies.

Oasis

A pond expert from the Staffordshire Wildlife Trust was due to come into the school this week to show the youngsters how to revive their mini oasis.

Team teaching assistant Nicky Marshall said: "The children were distraught that the frogs had nowhere to live. They've been rescuing them from around the school and we've been putting them into bowls of water."

"They are really passionate about the forest area and are rallying together to return it to how it used to be, and even to make it better."

NEWS in brief

Generous fans dig into pockets

KIND-hearted football fans raised £500 for Stafford Hospital's chemotherapy unit last weekend.

A bucket collection at Hednesford Town's clash against FC United of Manchester brought in £350, while the winners of a Supporters' Association quiz in Strikers Bar donated their winnings to the cause.

Collection organiser Ian Pitt, whose wife Sue is receiving treatment at the unit, said: "It was fantastic to see the fans being so generous."

He thanked Keith Harley for his efforts on the quiz and the volunteers who carried buckets around.

Casino night to benefit causes

THE chips are down for Cannock Rotary Club as it holds a fundraising casino night on March 31.

Action Kenya and Hednesford Town FC's youth team will benefit from the night at Keys Park, from 8pm.

Tickets are £10, to include a buffet and a virtual £10,000 worth of gambling funds.

The dress code is smart but casual evening wear. For tickets call Tony Spencer on 07899 960397 or David Marklew on 07779 139049.

On agenda at forum meeting

UPDATES on the town centre regeneration and Hednesford Park will be on the agenda at a public meeting next week.

The Hednesford Community Forum is at 7pm on Monday, March 26, at the Museum of Cannock Chase in Valley Road.

Questions over speeding and anti-social behaviour will also be raised.

Store offers pet care badge help

BEAVER and cub scout groups across Cannock can pick up their animal care badge with help from a pet store.

A NEW number-plate recognition system will automatically prevent drivers of untaxed or uninsured vehicles filling up at petrol stations. Clever scientists give us the technology and well-paid politicians give us the laws, but it's minimum-wage forecourt staff who end up getting thumped.

DEPUTY Prime Minister Nick Clegg was heard to remark that rich people paying low levels of tax were "literally in a different galaxy". No, they are not, Nick. At least not unless they have taken up residence many millions of light years away. "Literally" means the precise, literal meaning of a word or phrase. A singer does not literally bend over backwards to entertain us, but a contortionist does. Sadly, "literally" is becoming a meaningless word employed by people who like to appear educated but don't understand the texture, wit and richness of their own language.

IN THE old days we would collect our holiday snaps from the chemist and show them to our friends. Thanks to the miracle of the internet, we can now share them digitally. A friend, fresh back from a sailing trip, sends me his online gallery. Now the problem. In order to view it I must create an online account, giving my name and email address. Then dream up yet another password, confirm it, read the terms and conditions, tick the box saying I have read them and then tick the box declining future mailshots. Then, and only then, may I see the snaps. Sadly there is no tick-box marked: "Can't be arsed." Go on. tell me it's progress.

Party enjoys trip on Orient Express

RESIDENTS from a Hednesford retirement home enjoyed a day of luxury when they remembered a former friend and relative on the Orient Express.

A 28-strong party made up of residents, relatives, volunteers and staff from School Court retirement scheme in Station Road, travelled across Gloucestershire and Shropshire.

With them were relatives of Nellie Tooth who had booked seats on the train for herself and her family, but died in November.

According to daughter Janet Goldby, Nellie was really enthusiastic about the trip so seven members of the family decided to still go in her memory and took a photograph of her with them.

Janet said her mother, whose husband Reg died 10 years ago, had lived at The ExtraCare

Charitable Trust's scheme for four years.

"We know she would have enjoyed the trip and decided to go in her honour," she added.

During the trip on the Northern Belle, passengers were treated to a four-course meal with glasses of bubbly and entertainment and took part in a 'murder on the Orient Express' competition.

Sir Ranulph to open £3.5m college centre

STUDENTS at South Staffordshire college are preparing to welcome "inspirational" adventurer Sir Ranulph Fiennes.

Bosses have secured the services of the world's greatest living explorer and He will perform the official grand opening of a new £3.5m centre during his visit to the Rodbaston campus in Penkridge.

Sir Ranulph Fiennes

Sir Ranulph will also give a motivational presentation to more than 100 students during a visit on April 20.

Michelle Dowse, the college's director of commercial operations, said: "He is a truly inspirational man and we are delighted that he is going to speak to our students about taking on challenges for personal growth."

"We want all our students to achieve their full potential, which they are encouraged to do by meeting exceptional individuals."

"Sir Ranulph led the way in many exciting explorations and we felt it appropriate that he should open our Foster Learning Centre, a building that leads the way in sustainable development within the education sector."

Summit

Sir Ranulph served with the Royal Scots Greys before joining the SAS, becoming the youngest captain in the British Army.

He was the first person to visit both the North and South Poles by surface means and the first to completely cross Antarctica on foot. Three years ago, at the age of 65, he climbed to the summit of Mount Everest.

The Foster Learning Centre was funded by a £1m government grant. It opened to students in September and its facilities include classrooms, a large refectory with an outdoor terrace, a catering kitchen and shop and full-length glazed atrium. There is also a garden including plots for students to use for planting.

Happy tots spoil mums

CHILDREN had fun making Mother's Day cards and celebrating St Patrick's Day.

The youngsters from Happy Tots Nursery at Orbital Plaza, Bridgtown, celebrated the patron saint's day by taking part in Irish dancing, making shamrock hats, painting four-leaf clovers and having green messy play.

They also dressed in green, orange and white and enjoyed Irish stew.

Nursery manager Judy Kelly said: "The children love days like St Patrick's Day, when they enjoy activities around a special theme."

The youngsters followed it up by creating gifts for their mums in the run-up to Mother's Day. They made cards, drew portraits and baked surprise presents.

Mums joined their children for a 'stay and play' session, and enjoyed the home-made biscuits and cake.

Stock plea as shop reopens

A CHARITY shop has reopened after a refurbishment – and is urging customers to drop off their donations.

The Barnardo's shop, in Upper Brook Street, Rugeley, was reopened last Friday after a two-week closure.

The shop has been completely refitted, with customers having more choice of stock. However, manager Katy Swan said extra donations were needed – and the shop is opening on Sunday to enable people to drop them off. Katy said: "By opening on Sunday it gives people more chance to bring in their donations."

Opening hours on a Sunday are from 10am to 4pm, while the shop is open 9am to 5pm all other days. Some 15 volunteers work at the shop, which was formerly run by the Home Farm Trust.

Clothing, books and toys are all welcomed at the store. Call 01889 577339 for more details.

Groups join together to put on show at Mysteries

TWO theatre groups have combined to put on a play for the Lichfield Mysteries.

Chase Day Service Theatre, which this year celebrates its 21st anniversary, will be joining up with the Tower Players to perform Noah's Flood at this year's event.

The play gives everyone at the Bridgtown-based group of adults with learning difficulties the chance to perform or be part of the back-stage crew.

They were approached by Tower Players' director Peter Sidgwick about collaborating for the Mysteries. Since then, a huge community event has blossomed as cast members rehearse and talented craftspeople make animal masks and costumes for the production.

Excited

Day Services Officer Barbara Grayston is responsible for creative arts for Chase Day Services.

She said: "We are extremely excited about performing in the Mysteries and meeting and working alongside other groups."

Barbara and Peter will jointly direct Noah's Flood in the Lichfield Mysteries.

The free event features 26 plays performed on each of the two days of the May Day bank holiday, in Market Square, Lichfield and in the Cathedral.

Nursery is applauded by Ofsted inspector

STAFF at Rugeley nursery have expressed their delight at being awarded a 'good' rating in its first ever Ofsted inspection.

Little Graduates Nursery, at Celcon House on Power Station Road, opened late last year and underwent an Ofsted inspection soon after. Inspectors were particularly impressed by the speed at which children settled into their new surroundings and the welcoming environment created by staff.

Ofsted also noted the safeguarding procedures put in place, including a fingerprint recognition system for security and a dedicated sleep room.

Nursery proprietor Donna West said: "We are delighted that the hard work of staff has been rewarded with such an exceptional Ofsted report."

"We pride ourselves on the friendly and convenient service we offer."

There are still places available at Little Graduates Nursery for children up to five years old.

For more information or a tour of the facilities contact Donna by emailing littlegraduates@live.co.uk or calling 01889 802232.

Recycle site is reopening

A RECYCLING centre reopens tomorrow (Friday) after a £200,000 redevelopment. Rugeley Recycling Centre has been specifically designed to provide better and safer access.

Pedestrian access will allow locals to safely walk to the site, while an easier passage to the neighbouring charity Re-use shop has been provided.

Staffordshire County Councillor Mark Wittington, Cabinet Member for Environment and Assets, said: "We are delighted with our new-look recycling centre and the updated facilities will allow it to continue to give the best service to the local community."

Youth club night

A HOST of activities are available for children at a club night tomorrow (Friday). The monthly session is at the Salvation Army, in Walhouse Street, Cannock, from 6.30-9pm. Pool, table tennis, bar football, Wii games and art activities are on offer. Cost is £1.50 per child.

Students put business brains to the test

Staffordshire University Academy Young Enterprise students

STUDENTS with a head for business put their skills to the test by thinking of ways to boost tourism in Cannock Chase.

Year 10 and 11 pupils at Staffordshire University Academy in Hednesford were challenged to come up with a business idea to create jobs and benefit the community, while supporting and protecting the Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB).

The event was a Young Enterprise one-day challenge and was held in association with Cannock Chase Council. Sixty teams presented their marketing plans and they were judged by Councillor Gordon Alcott, Claire Potter of Go Ape!, Ruth Hytch and Emma Beaman-Green from the AONB management team and Melanie Hall of Pertermps.

Ideas generated included wild camping and treetop lodges, an environmentally-friendly monorail giving a unique view of the Chase and a giant mushroom-shaped activity centre.

The Year 10 winners came up with a Giant Tree of Fun, while Year 11 winners Wood to Goods wanted to hire out camping, sport and nature equipment for use on the Chase. Councillor Alcott, planning and economic development leader for the council, said: "Young Enterprise aims to raise aspirations in local students and to introduce them to the skills required to become successful businesspeople in the future."

Janis Wilcox of Young Enterprise said: "In the future we hope to offer more schools the opportunity to take part in this exciting programme."

For more details e-mail janis.wilcox@young-enterprise.org.uk or call 07960 055448.

Traders launch campaign over parking fees increase

TRADERS in Rugeley have launched a campaign against rising car parking fees. They fear a hike will drive shoppers to out-of-town supermarkets.

Motorists are facing increases for rates at car parks in Forge Road, St Paul's Road, at the Market Hall, at Taylor's Lane, Market Street and Lichfield Street from April 1. All rates across the Cannock Chase district will jump 30p for people parking for between two and three hours from £2.10 to £2.40.

Residents and business leaders have started a campaign on Facebook against the increase, and published a letter urging council bosses to drop the fees which says the increase is a "ploy" to "close down Rugeley completely".

The letter, which has been published on the Rugeley Traders Association Facebook site, reads: "In Rugeley we are now faced with having one of the largest supermarket chains being built out-of-town which will offer free parking."

"To counteract this what does the council do but raise charges which will make us more expensive than the larger towns of Stafford and Lichfield."

Ploy
"You don't have to be a rocket scientist to realise what effect this will have on the town centre."

"Surely even you must realise we are trying to regenerate the town centre and have put many initiatives into place to encourage local shopping."

"Is this a ploy of the council to close Rugeley down completely?"

Councillor George Adamson, the leader of Cannock Chase Council, said: "If we did get rid of the charges there would have to be a two per cent increase in council tax."

"There's no alternative and it was agreed by the previous administration," he added.

Around 150 jobs are to be created in Rugeley with Tesco planning to build a 40,000sq ft store on the former Celcon factory site

Former pupils to go back to school

Former teacher Trevor Saunders with former pupils Cheryl Wilcox, left and Maria Staines as they try and organise a school reunion for former Kingsmead Technology College pupils

FORMER school pupils from the 1980s are being sought for a reunion in Hednesford next month.

Anyone who left the former Kingsmead High School, now known as Kingsmead Technology College, from 1980 to 1985 is invited to the reunion, which takes place at The Hen House Pub, Eskrett Street, on April 14.

Around 60 people have already signed up, many through a Facebook group, including former teacher Trevor Saunders.

The reunion has been organised independently of the school by Cannock resident Cheryl Wilcox. She said: "Everyone's looking forward to it - we've got a lot of happy memories from the school and they were certainly the best years of my life."

"It's been a while in the making and it's certainly given me a few grey hairs."

"We've tried to find a few people online but we need to reach out to those who aren't on Facebook." Tickets for the event, which starts at 7.30pm, are £5 and include a disco and buffet.

Call Cheryl on 01543 428803.

Schoolboy saddles up for Games

A CANNOCK school pupil from been selected to represent the West Midlands at an Olympic sporting venue in London later this year.

Jacob Kelly, a pupil at Cardinal Griffin RC High School, will compete in the UK School Games after qualifying in the cycling event.

Qualification was achieved by Jacob being one of the four best placed riders in a series of three events, after cumulative points totals were compiled.

The first two events were held in Solihull on March 3, with Jacob coming fifth and third.

In the final event at Darley Moor, near Ashbourne, the Year 11 pupil managed to finish in the top two to secure a place in the team and duly came second, nipping his rivals to the post in a bunch sprint.

The Sainsbury's 2012 UK School Games is a multi-sport event for the UK's elite young athletes of school age. Around 1,600 of the nation's finest young stars will compete.

In this, its inaugural year, the games are being held in the Olympic Park and other venues from May 6-9.

Four Olympic venues will host the event - the Olympic Stadium, Aquatic Centre, Velodrome and ExCel Centre.

The competition aims to mirror the Olympic and Paralympic Games - complete with opening and closing ceremonies.

Parents are facing wait in fight for school place

PARENTS face an anxious wait to see if their child has a place at their chosen school. In some cases three children are fighting for each space as a scramble for places was revealed.

Figures reveal Gorsemoor Primary in Heath Hayes, is one of the county's most sought-after schools. It offers 65 places, with 165 parents naming it as one of their preferred choices.

Parents have to wait until April 20 to find out if their child will get in at their preferred school.

Bridgtown Primary was revealed as the most under-subscribed school. Sixty places were on offer but just 26 parents applied for their child to go there.

Honest

The amount of applications a school receives depends factors such as its size, how many places it offers, its catchment area and its popularity.

Paul Bennett, head-teacher at Gorsemoor, said: "I think it comes down to a combination of the growing population in Heath Hayes and the fact that we are a popular school. Parents perceive Gorsemoor as being a good school.

"If I'm honest I'd like to offer more places than I am currently."

"We have a large catchment area and lots of brothers and sisters of current pupils want to come here."

Chancel Primary, Rugeley was one of three schools that had more than three families chasing each place.

Councillor Liz Staples, cabinet member for education in Staffordshire, said: "There are many things to take into account, such as size of catchment area but also things like how many places are on offer."

"If a school doesn't have loads of applications, it doesn't necessarily mean it's not popular."

Pupils' Maths fun

From left: Millie Bowker, aged eight, Sophie Marston, eight, Charlotte Weston, 10 and Thomas Sturges, eight

A PRIMARY school put its pupils to the test by staging a Maths week. Cheslyn Hay Primary held the week to encourage pupils with their numbers.

Youngsters could dress up to bring a sense of fun to the day while also learning important and vital skills.

Amanda Black, maths co-ordinator at the Saredon Road school said: "It was an opportunity for the children to enjoy a variety of activities focussing on improving their problem-solving skills."

Firm lands £1m club deal

A RUGELEY business has won the contract to design a £1m revamp of a Caribbean nightclub. GMP Design, of Towers Business Park, is handling the transformation of Coco Night Club and Sports Bar in Georgetown, Guyana. The club, in the fashionable Alberttown district, will have illuminated pillars, gold panelled bar and a roof terrace with a colour-changing fountain and aquarium.

Club looks to Welcome new members

Christine Barker and June Cornes appeal for new members at the Welcome Club, Hednesford Road, Heath Hayes

NEW MEMBERS are being sought for an expanding over 50s club in Heath Hayes.

The Welcome Club in Hednesford Road, holds meetings once a week and offers people the chance to make new friendships and enjoy social activities. It has around 40 members but the group's social secretary Jill Fisher said she hoped more like-minded people would sign up.

She said: "Everyone is so friendly and it's lovely to be able to talk to new people and make friendships. We're trying to organise a special event once a month, things like a speaker, entertainment, pub lunches and theatre trips."

Members pay £1.50 a week to cover costs, although refreshments are included and the first week is free.

Weekly meetings, which usually include bingo, raffles and tea, take place every Thursday from 1.30 to 4pm. Call Jill on 01543 451172.

Jobs boost at warehouse

A MULTI-MILLION pound investment extending a warehouse for Unilever goods has created 75 jobs.

The big automated warehouse at Kingswood Lakeside handles distribution of Unilever's Homecare and Ambient Food ranges, including Marmite, Hellmann's Mayonnaise, Colman's Mustard, Pot Noodle and PG Tips.

Homecare lines distributed from the extended warehouse across the UK include Persil, Domestos, Comfort and Surf. The original 131,233sq ft by 100ft high warehouse opened in 2006. It cost £50m and created 200 jobs.

The 18,000sq ft extension was officially opened last week.

Upgrade

The 21-month project has provided an extra 22,000 pallet spaces for the warehouse, operated by DHL Supply Chain.

It has also involved an automatic vehicle offloading area, an upgrade to the information technology infrastructure and created 75 additional jobs to operate the enlarged facility.

The extension was opened by Graham Inglis, DHL Supply Chain's chief executive for Europe, the Middle East and Africa, and Amanda Sourry, chairman of Unilever UK and Ireland.

Mr Inglis said: "We're delighted to extend our partnership with Unilever."

"We were always mindful of the site's potential to accommodate more capacity and it's exciting to see this come to fruition."

Truth call in dispute over NHS meeting

I READ with interest the letter from Aidan Burley MP countering a claim by Councillor Diane Todd that he had failed to represent the people of Cannock Chase by not speaking out at a public meeting on NHS services.

Obviously they can't both be correct. Our MP insists he asked Mid Staffs Trust chief executive Lyn Hill-Tout to make a public commitment to the future of Cannock Hospital. According to Councillor Todd, Mr Burley let us down by failing to ask any questions or obtain any commitments from the trust on our behalf.

This ambiguity could easily be resolved by requesting a copy of the minutes. In the unlikely event that no official record was taken, surely Lyn Hill-Tout would have made a note of all items raised by the public and in particular any statements made by the area's MP.

CHRIS COLLIS
Rawsley

Damaging decision to cut officers

THEY haven't got the privatisation plans for the NHS through Parliament yet but the Tory/Lab Dem Government is now putting forward proposals to part privatise the police service.

We are being saddled with political control of the police in November with the election of Police Commissioners. This will cost £100m at a time of police budget cuts, including a massive 60 per cent cut in community safety spending.

Now we are being told of plans to bring in private security firms to carry out a number of police tasks, including patrolling neighbourhoods, investigating crimes and detaining suspects. Freedom of Information requests to all police forces in England and Wales show a drop of over 5,000 in police units who principally respond to 999 calls - those considered to be 'visible' and respond to emergency calls.

These figures are disgraceful. This steep fall in the frontline teams who respond to 999 calls just shows how damaging it is for the Government to cut 16,000 police officers. The Government needs to change course. Frontline services are being hit by the 20 per cent cut to police funding. The evidence is stacked against the Government and its claims about protecting frontline policing. Private security guards are not the same as trained police officers.

Whether it is 'visible' or 'frontline' policing, the decision to cut 16,000 police officers is causing huge damage to police forces, and it is communities who will ultimately pay the price.

A government's first responsibility is to protect the public. This Government is failing in its duty.

MP should support his constituents

FOLLOWING the letter from Diane Todd on March 8, I can only support her concern at Aidan Burley MP not supporting issues that affect his constituents here in Cannock Chase.

As secretary for PCS DWP South Staffordshire branch I am fully aware of our MP's lack of fight for causes affecting constituents.

Last May when the closure of the Cannock Benefit Centre was announced to reduce running costs in DWP, a general letter to all staff from Mr Burley stated: "Bluntly, I cannot persuade the Government to keep the Cannock BDC open".

Any MP worth their salt should be fighting to retain every job and service they can within their constituency.

Mr Burley should support the people of Cannock Chase over and above his own parties policies.

His job is to represent his constituents, not supporting the Governments policies to their detriment.

Campaign to mark site of Hoard find

SINCE the Staffordshire Hoard was discovered in 2009, the reactions of historians sent the media into a frenzy, with interested bodies fighting each other to gain access in order to showcase the find.

Since then, not one expert has had the foresight to implement a plan to preserve the original site for future generations. Several ideas put forward by local laymen have been ignored by so-called experts, despite these same experts telling us in a BBC 2 documentary of the importance of this site in the overall story of the Hoard.

Road signs telling of the Hoard have been erected miles away from the site as if a conspiracy exists to keep it secret. As a body representing the people of Brownhills, we will be supporting any campaign to erect either a monument or a visitors' centre, in or as near as possible, to the piece of land on which the Anglo-Saxon Hoard was found.

GERALD BICKLEY
Brownhills Local Committee

Figures were inaccurate

RE: your front page article, March 15, regarding the Aldi store planning application for Burntwood.

The facts regarding 200 objections to the original application were wildly incorrect. Indeed there had only ever been 12 objections under the original application. Those objections came down to three in the fresh application. The actual numbers at the public consultation event organised by the Aldi agents at St John's Church, Chase Terrace were 52 in favour, seven in favour with reservations, nine had no objections and just three were against.

Of those who bothered to respond to the District Council planning application for the change of access arrangements, 22 sent in supportive letters and only two objected.

Religious discrimination

I DO not wear a cross, but I do wear pray beads and I would raise issue with those who try to stop those that do. I would say that if the wearing of crosses is banned, then the Government should also stop the wearing of turbans, berkas, skull caps and other such items of religious wear.

'Lest we Forget'

A MILLION boots are marching, in a dusty foreign land, Condemned to conflagration, by a politician's hand, From Pakistan, Afghanistan, to Mons and Ypres too, Hear this call you soldiers, we have not forgotten you.

A million voices telling us, when you go home and say, Remember, for your tomorrow, that we gave our today, From centuries through history, you answered England's call.

And we, who do remember, do pay homage to you all.

A million poppies falling, at a silent, last parade, A soldiers voice is silenced, but his memory will not fade, And as we sing at cenotaphs our Nation's special hymn, We remember all these men condemned, at a politician's whim.

Old Fashioned Values Pay Dividends For Cloudy2Clear

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes - not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Brian Stanley feels that his approach is the key. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Some people may call the way I do things a little old-fashioned but it's amazing how a simple mix of manners, punctuality and personal service increases your business. I'm constantly taken aback by customers who are shocked that we turn up when we say we will, do the job that is required and clean up after ourselves.

I'm afraid it indicates to me that there are many companies who don't and that's just not fair to the customer.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Walsall, Wolverhampton, Dudley, Cannock, Bridgnorth & Stourbridge areas and Brian is finding that his ethos is proving to be a major factor in his success. 'When I started out I just did the things that came naturally to me. I really hate being let down by tradesmen so I was determined not to let that happen to my customers. As it turns out that little bit of extra care has meant I get friends and family of people I have done work for on the phone constantly so it's not just personally satisfying but good for business too. At the end of the day it's not rocket science, is it?'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Brian a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Learn lessons call after wife's op death tragedy

School's global status

Back, Gary Downes and Reece Boulton with, front, Immee Le-Rue, teacher Elizabeth Sturgess and Becky Fisher

A PENKRIDGE school has been rewarded for showing that its pupils were learning about places across the globe. International School status has been bestowed on Wolgarston High in Cannock Road.

The award recognises that the school has an international ethos throughout, has year-round international activity and has involved the majority of its pupils. Teacher Elizabeth Sturgess said: "The scheme provides recognition for teachers and their schools working to instill a global dimension into the learning experience."

THE family of a woman who died after routine gall bladder surgery say they hope lessons will be learned following her death.

Retired school cook Patricia Franks, a healthy 67-year-old grandmother from Chasetown, was admitted to Good Hope Hospital, Sutton Coldfield in February last year. During the operation part of the blood supply to her liver was cut off and she died two days later.

An inquest in Birmingham heard a portal vein connecting the blood supply to the liver, was damaged during the operation.

A narrative verdict was recorded, with deputy coroner Sarah Ormond-Walshe identifying a failing in post-operative care. She ruled Mrs Franks had died after suffering liver necrosis and said there had been a failing that Mrs Franks had not been nursed on an intensive care unit or high dependency ward following surgery.

Turmoil

"Although I do find there was a failure, it wasn't gross," said Ms Ormond-Walshe.

During the surgery, performed by a trainee general surgeon, a vein and an artery were torn, causing haemorrhaging. Mrs Franks died on February 9 at Birmingham's Queen Elizabeth Hospital.

Husband John Franks said afterwards: "The last 13 months have been utter turmoil. I'm left a widower with our dreams in tatters and I'm looking for assurances from the hospital that they've made improvements in their training and supervision of staff."

Nine-mile ramble

A NINE-mile moderate walk at Trysull is on the Chase & District Ramblers' calendar this weekend. Meet at Hednesford rail station car park, in Anglesey Street, on Sunday (March 25) for a prompt 9am departure. Walk leader is Betty on 01543 506876.

Those swinging doors for Wolves bosses in the 60s

THE 60s is usually looked upon as a great decade by all who were there, though it is said that if you can remember them, you weren't actually there.

This is not true of Wolves' supporters, however, because, in between two glory decades when Wolves won cups and competed at the highest level in the League, the 60s was an unhappy, up and down time.

Winning the FA Cup in 1960 was the swansong of the glorious team which was the most successful in the club's history.

Billy Wright retired in 1959, and was followed by many of those stars, only Ron Flowers soldiered on through the new decade.

The great Stan Cullis tried to rebuild the team with youngsters for the 1962-3 season, and seemed to have succeeded, the first match being the famous 8-1 victory over Manchester City, the start of an 11 game unbeaten run, but it was not to last.

The team ran out of steam and finished 5th, and Cullis was sacked in September 1964, near the start of a season when they finished 21st.

New manager Andy Beattie could not prevent relegation the following year, and he too lost his job.

The new man appointed to rescue the club was Ronnie Allen, who brought in some of the players who became Wolves' legends, David Wagstaffe, Phil Parkes, Derek Parkin, Mike Bailey, and, above all, Derek Dougan. After two years in Division Two they were promoted back where they belonged in 1968, but the team struggled once more in the top flight, finishing 17th.

Things were no better the following season, and shortly after a humiliating 6-0 home defeat to Liverpool, in which Alun Evans, recently transferred from Wolves, scored twice. Allen was also sacked.

In November 1968 the directors appointed former Ipswich manager Bill McGarry, with Sammy Chung, later to replace him. McGarry was a disciplinarian in the style of Cullis.

He recruited Jim MacCalliog and Hugh Curran and the team finished 13th in 1970.

They were on their way back to the glory days, perhaps not as great as the 50s, but silverware and European football soon followed.

The Swinging 60s were over, and Wolves supporters were grateful for that.

Museum visit is on the cards

Restaurant owner becomes a Friend

NORTON CANES WI

THE March meeting was opened by the president Norma Jenvey who welcomed members.

The minutes from the meeting in February were read and agreed.

This year is the 20th anniversary of the founding of the WI in Norton Canes and there is to be a celebration at the meeting in May.

The group meeting at Shareshill is on March 29.

On May 3 is the afternoon outing to Thornton's chocolate factory.

Norma announced that the annual day out will be on August 21 with a visit to the Black Country Museum with a meal on the way back.

The group has been asked to take part in a celebration at the community centre on June 4 in honour of the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

The next Group meeting is in October, which Norton canes will host at the Methodist Chapel.

At the AGM in May Norma will be stepping down as president. Nominations are sought for the task of replacing the wonderful and inspirational president.

Speaker was Frank Aston and members had a great evening learning about the history of the cinema.

Norma then announced the winners of the competition.

The next meeting will be at the library, in Burntwood Road, on April 4 at 7.30pm.

Johur Uddin is welcomed as a "Friend" by Rugeley Lions

RUGELEY LIONS

LIONS are very much an international organisation with a mission statement of "We Serve" and this month Rugeley Lions have proudly shown themselves to be very much a multi-national club.

Hazar Ulku, a Turkish citizen currently working in the UK, wanted to get more involved in his new community so he contacted Rugeley Lions.

Having supported a number of fundraising events and helping with various projects, especially establishing the Facebook page, Hazar was invited to join and became a Lion. This recognition of service was again highlighted when a long standing supporter of Rugeley Lions, Johur Uddin, was made a "Friend of Lions".

Johur, a local restaurateur, has for 10 years helped support a variety of Lions fundraisers. In acknowledgement of his long service he was given a "Friends" badge at a ceremony held at the Red Peppers restaurant in Rugeley.

Guild's 25th anniversary

IN THIS Olympic Year, Great Wyrley Townswomen Guild has an exciting year planned as it celebrates their 25th Birthday.

The year started with a late turkey and tinsel evening at Old Wyrley Hall, followed by a skittles night in February.

A 25th birthday meal will take place in April at

GREAT WYRLEY TOWNSWOMEN

Cannock Cricket and Hockey Club. Other events include a canal barge trip, a strawberry tea, Great Wyrley Carnival with the Olym-pic Torch, a Party in the Park, a 40s night and a visit from Elizabeth I from Tutbury Castle. Ladies will also take part in the National Conference in June at the ICC in Birmingham.

Coach trips are also planned to Port Sunlight, Nottingham and Much Wenlock.

Guild meetings take place on the second Tuesday of the month at 7.30 pm at the Wyrley Wesley Church, Walsall Road.

Progress as business in move to new depot

A COMPANY that provides temporary and permanent power supplies to businesses has opened its first Midlands depot in Burntwood. The new base for Progress Group has created two jobs with more to follow as business grows.

Yorkshire-based Progress has taken a 4,810 sq ft unit at Burntwood Business Park, which is owned and managed by London and Cambridge Properties.

The company provides a range of services from a single generator to a package for the design, build, installation and commissioning of critical power equipment.

The Burntwood depot includes an extensive parts distribution centre supported by a team of field service engineers. Kerry Moggridge, the firm's hire director, said: "The new Midlands depot will enhance our presence in the region."

Getting into character

Pupils at St Thomas More Catholic School, Great Wyrley, dress up for World Book Day

SNOW WHITE, Little Red Riding Hood and Harry Potter were among the guests when pupils in Great Wyrley dressed up for World Book Day.

St Thomas More Catholic Primary School, on Huthill Lane, hosted a book character assembly, which was the culmination of a week of book-themed activities.

Headteacher Stephanie Hewitt said it was wonderful to see so many children dressing up.

"Reading is so important for children as it opens up so many opportunities, so any opportunity there is to promote reading we take," Mrs Hewitt added.

It was the 15th annual World Book Day, which saw events take place in more than 100 countries.

Jobless figures blamed on cuts

CANNOCK'S council leader has described another rise in the number of people claiming jobseeker's allowance as 'disappointing' but blamed the figures on Government cuts.

The West Midlands claimant count in February was 175,134, meaning 5.1 per cent of the working population are receiving the benefit, a rise of 2,082.

Cannock saw the biggest increase with 65 additional claimants to 2,541 - equating to 4.1 per cent - with Lichfield up 51 to 1,677 or 2.7 per cent.

Stafford remained the lowest percentage in the county, at 2.4 per cent, a rise of only 19 to 1,935.

George Adamson, leader of Cannock Chase District Council, said the news was out of the council's control.

"Part of it is we have lost seasonal Amazon jobs," he said. "It's disappointing and is the result of government policies. If you cut and cut then unemployment is going to go up.

"Public sector jobs have gone due to Government cuts and sadly the private sector has not compensated.

"We are looking to bring jobs in and there are some prime industrial sites we are applying for cash from the Growing Places Fund from Government."

In South Staffordshire, the number of claimants rose by 18 to 1,914 or 2.9 per cent.

Nationally the number of people claiming jobseeker's allowance increased for the 12th month in a row, up by 7,200 in February to 1.6 million, the worst figure since the end of 2009.

Drumming up support

A CANNOCK band is trying to drum up support for new members. The Cannock Chase Drum Corp is looking for new drummers. Practice sessions take place on Wednesdays from 6.30to8.30pm at Hayes Green Community Centre, next to Tesco, Heath Hayes. Anyone interested, that can either play or wants to learn, should call 0845 052 9717 or 01543 579 672/01543 276803.

Restaurant in charity week with child actor

A CHILD star has inspired an award-winning Indian restaurant to host a fundraising week in aid of Birmingham Children's Hospital.

Ben Wilby received life-saving treatment at the hospital and when the star of the hit movie Nativity! celebrated his 10th birthday at the Dilshad in January, owner Tony Uddin decided to stage the charity week.

Ben received a lifesaving nine hour operation at Birmingham Children's Hospital to relieve pressure on his brain when he was just two after being treated for cranial synostosis. Inspired by Ben's story The Dilshad, in Cannock Road, Chads Moor, now wants to play its part in raising funds for the worthwhile cause.

Remarkable

The fundraising week will run from Monday, March 26 until Sunday, April 1.

Customers will have the opportunity to purchase raffle tickets at the end of their meal with all proceeds going to Birmingham Children's Hospital.

The winning ticket holder, drawn at the end of the week will receive a three course meal for two at the restaurant and a bottle of wine. The fundraising week also ties in with Birmingham Children's Hospital's 150th birthday celebrations taking place this year.

Tony said: "Ben is a real star and is such an inspiration. He has achieved so much for someone so young and it is made all the more remarkable when you know what he has been through."

Ben's mother Jill, of Bishop Close, added: "Ben owes his life to staff at Birmingham Children's Hospital. He wouldn't be here today if it wasn't for them. Ben loves to help Birmingham Children's Hospital whenever he can and he is right behind this fundraising week."

Owner Tony Uddin and 10-year-old local actor Ben Wilby promote the charity week for Birmingham Children's Hospital at The Dilshad

Ben won the hearts of the nation when he played Bob in the hit 2009 film, co-starring Martin Freeman and Alan Carr and plays the role again in the sequel set to be released in November.

Following his operation doctors told his parents he might never talk or even walk. A physiotherapist urged his mom to take him to dance lessons when he was four to strengthen his legs. Within two months he had finished second in his first dance competition and since then he has won a string of competitions including European Freestyle Champion.

Villagers without telephone lines after cable stolen

HUNDREDS of homes were left without telephone landlines - after metal thieves stole almost 4,000ft of underground cable.

The raiders targeted the village of Colton, near Rugeley in the early hours of Friday (March 16), climbing down manholes and dragging the cable across fields.

Engineers have begun to reconnect some lines. However, some could be down for up to a week in total.

Police have posted letters to householders affected, appealing for information.

The cable, believed to contain copper wiring, was ripped out from the junction of Bellamoor Way, along the Colton Road, a stretch of about three quarters of a mile.

Chris and Georgia Hine, who run the Ye Olde Dun Cow pub restaurant in High Street, were unable to use their credit card machine and had to borrow payment forms from a neighbouring pub to carry out manual transactions. Around 800 people live in the village, some of whom are served by overhead cables with the rest receiving their phone connections via underground lines.

BT spokesman Emma Tennant said the company had received dozens of complaints from people left without connection.

"It is extremely regrettable when we suffer any kind of attack on our network. Our priority is always to restore services to those affected quickly," she said.

Manhole

Police said the offenders would have been in the fields adjacent to the road and would have spent some time at the various manhole covers along the stretch of road.

Anyone who saw anything suspicious is asked to contact Pc Andy Brown or PCSO Lisa Anderson at Staffordshire Police on 101, quoting incident 123, or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Rallying call over Olympics

FORMER Olympic champion Jonathan Edwards has urged people in Staffordshire to help support the London 2012 games.

The former British triple jumper was at the Staffordshire University campus to discuss the impending event and talk with young aspiring athletes like Cannock swimmer Emma Wilkins.

The 45-year-old, part of the London Organising Committee, said the Olympics was a major boost for the whole country.

The Olympic torch is due to travel through the region and he said it was an opportunity for people from across Staffordshire to get involved.

People have also taken up roles as local leaders or gamesmakers.

Mr Edwards said: "People are genuinely made up by the fact the Olympic torch may be going by the end of their road."

Drivers held up as bus fire is tackled

The Arriva bus which caused caught fire on the busy A460 dual carriageway

FRUSTRATED drivers were stuck in queues after a severe bus fire in Cannock closed off a busy dual carriageway in both directions.

An 800 yard stretch of the A460, between junction 11 of the M6 and the M6 Toll Road, was completely closed following the Tuesday's blaze, which happened just after 1pm. The westbound carriageway towards Cannock was blocked for almost three hours while emergency services worked at the scene. Police also closed the eastbound side for around an hour due to drifting smoke. Traffic was forced to queue on the north-bound slip road of the M6.

The Arriva bus, which was not in service, was heading towards the company's Cannock depot with maintenance problems after being driven up the motorway from Birmingham when the driver noticed smoke coming from the engine at the rear.

He pulled in and was fetching a fire extinguisher when the back of the bus burst into flames. Three fire crews, from Cannock and Chase Terrace, battled to confine the blaze.

Congestion

Watch manager Russ Brown said: "If it had been a fully laden bus, the situation could have been a lot more serious."

He said motorists heading for Cannock followed diversions via Cheslyn Hay, causing some congestion along that route.

The bus was recovered and the road opened up again just after 4pm. The driver was unhurt.

Arriva spokesman Keith Myatt said: "An investigation will be carried out into the cause of the fire."

Highways Agency staff were called to check damage to the road surface and carry out repairs before the carriageways were reopened.

Election delight for girls

Fern Jobling, aged 15

Ruth Corcoran, aged 16

TWO Rugeley teenagers have been elected to join the 600 Members of the Youth Parliament.

Fern Jobling, aged 15 and 16-year-old Ruth Corcoran were among the five elected from Staffordshire, along with Joe Porter, aged 15, from Endon, Natalia Gron, 13, from Burton and Nathan Houghton, 16 of Pattingham. Each candidate, aged 11-18 delivered a two-minute speech highlighting the work they would do to improve the lives of young people in the county.

Fern said: "I'm really proud and happy to have been elected. I'm looking forward to making a difference."

Ruth said: "I'm thrilled to have been given the opportunity and I'm honoured that people have the faith in me to voice their opinions. I can't wait to get started."

Free screen tests offer to highlight blindness risk

Chase Eyecare Cannock branch manager: Jackie Murphy with Victoria Brown, aged 17

AN opticians is offering free screen tests to raise awareness of the associated risks of diabetes and blindness.

Chase Eyecare, which has branches in Cannock and Hednesford, is one of just a few practices in Staffordshire that offers free diabetes eye screening examinations and glasses for NHS patients.

Chase Eyecare is accredited to undertake Digital Diabetic Retinopathy Eye Screening for patients registered with a GP in the Staffordshire Health Authority area.

Diabetes can cause blindness if not diagnosed and treated so Chase Eyecare wants to highlight the need for people to have their eyes screened.

Optometrist Shakel Furi, clinical director, said: "It is extremely important to have regular eye examinations. At Chase Eyecare our full examination not only includes the visual assessments but also the health of the visual system is examined in detail. This includes diabetic eye screening tests.

"Diabetic eye disease can cause blindness if it is not detected and treated and it is a very important test."

Diabetes can affect the eye in a number of ways. The most serious eye condition associated with diabetes is called diabetic retinopathy. This involves the retina and more specifically the blood vessels lying within it.

Diagnosis

Although vision may be good, changes can be taking place in the retina that need treatment. Because most sight loss due to diabetes is preventable, early diagnosis of diabetic retinopathy is vital.

Chase Eyecare also specialises in visual stress or dyslexia. Visit www.chaseeyecare.co.uk or to make an appointment call either 01543 570313 or 01543 422198.

Library plays host to event for war gamers

WAR game enthusiasts can get to grips with a pilot club being launched at Cannock Library.

The Manor Avenue venue is hosting a special introduction to Warhammer for children aged eight and over. The free paint and play event takes place on Saturday, March 31 from 9.30am to 3.30pm and is being held with a view to establishing a regular Warhammer Club.

Participants will need to bring a packed lunch and 'dress for a mess'.

Call Cannock Library on 01543 510365 for more details.

Hundreds of pupils face missing out on the buses

HUNDREDS of A-level students in Staffordshire will be excluded from a council-run school transport scheme, under cost-cutting plans.

In a controversial move, Staffordshire County Council is withdrawing travel for all students except those from "low-income" families and disabled teenagers.

War graves link-up to mark 50th anniversary

FORMER volunteers are being sought for an international event that is celebrating its 50th year.

Young people from Staffordshire and the German town of Bremen have been coming together to help tend the graves of soldiers on Cannock Chase.

The partnership between the German War Graves Commission and Staffordshire County Council marks the milestone in August.

The council is inviting anyone who has participated over the past 50 years to take part in the anniversary, and wants as many people as possible to come forward.

Footage

Councillor Mike Lawrence, cabinet member for children and young people said: "We're looking for previous volunteers to join in. We're after photos, letters, cuttings, film footage and general memories."

Isa Nolle is the youth officer at the German War Graves Commission. Her father was instrumental in setting up the partnership.

She said: "The 50th anniversary is extremely significant to me since my father passed away last year. I am honoured to carry on his work, and would like as many people as possible to join in the celebrations."

The celebrations will last from August 13 to 27. To get involved, call 01785 854125, email youth@staffordshire.gov.uk or visit www.youthbox.info

Witness plea as break-ins linked

POLICE are appealing for witnesses after two daytime burglaries in Great Wyrley. Both break-ins occurred while the occupants were out on Thursday (March 15).

Offenders stole a gold Timex watch, with the words 'Ian Love Mum and Dad' engraved on the rear, along with an iPad 2 tablet and a black Dell laptop in Norfolk Grove. Four Nintendo DS consoles, pink and turquoise in colour, and games were taken from an address in Hilton Lane.

Detectives are linking the burglaries and want to speak to anyone who saw any suspicious activity. They also want to speak to people who may have been offered the items for sale. Call DC Emma Harthill on 101, ext 5957.

Lions' pride as president takes time out for visit

THE president of an international service organisation met Cannock branch members during a whistle-stop tour of the UK.

Lions Club International President Dr Wing Kun Tam visited the National Memorial Arboretum in Alrewas during his four-day visit. He planted a tree at the site before leaving on Wednesday (March 14) for Westminster to celebrate Lions Day at United Nations.

The president also took a look at the recently-constructed shelter at the arboretum that was funded by Lions Clubs. He was met by Lions Club members from across Staffordshire, including Cannock and Lichfield.

With a world-wide membership of more than a million, Lions are the biggest service club organisation in the world.

A group spokesman said: "This is a great honour for the UK as the International President has a very full diary, and will only normally spend a few hours in any one country as he attempts to visit as many Lions as possible throughout the world."

Family

"It was truly a great day. Not many Lions get to meet their International President our Lion King."

Dr Tam said 'I am so excited to come to England meet my family of Lions. When Lions believe in what they are doing they make it happen.'

Many communities and individuals have benefited from Lions Clubs in the Staffordshire and West Midlands areas, either from donations or service.

Organist Jean tells of love for her mum

BRITAIN'S Got Talent organist Jean Martyn told of her love for her mother in a special Songs of Praise. The 60-year-old Lichfield-born grandmother is a former Cannock music school teacher and now lives in Brewwood.

Speaking to presenter Aled Jones in Sunday night's show she said it was her first Mother's Day since the death of her mum, Phyllis Waterson. "I just feel I know she's at peace now," she said.

Jean also told of the evening her mother died. She was performing at Wembley Arena and about to go on stage. "I rang home and my son said 'Mum, she's just gone'. It was so moving," she said. "I gave the performance of my life."

View the landscapes

Jean Walker shows off some of her landscapes which are on display at Blakenall Village Centre in Walsall LANDSCAPES by a talented Burntwood artist are on display at a gallery in Walsall. They feature scenes of Italy to the rolling hills of Cannock Chase.

Mother-of-two Jean Walker began painting around 16 years ago when her children left home and the fruits of her labour are now on show. The 63-year-old said she enjoys the "freedom of expression" that painting gives her.

Her latest display features oil paintings of Italian vistas, as well as more local landscapes such as Lichfield Cathedral and Cannock Chase. Mrs Walker, of Cannock Road in Burntwood, said: "It's lovely to have my work on display."

The exhibition is on show at the Atrium Gallery at Blakenall Village Centre, in Thames Road, Blakenall.

Crackdown sees drivers stopped

ONE in 10 of drivers stopped by police as part of a targeted campaign across Cannock, Stafford and Lichfield, was found to have no insurance, MOT or licence, figures show.

Officers from Staffordshire Police, along with trading standards, took part in the operation in a bid to clamp down on road fatalities. Some 18 vehicles were seized for having no insurance, MoT or licence.

Police stopped 150 vehicles using Automatic Number Plate Recognition Systems at key locations including junction 13 and 14 of the M6 at Stafford.

Notices

Other sites included the A38 and A5 junction near Lichfield, and junction 11 at the A460 at Cannock.

The operations - which took place on March 7 and March 8 - also saw 11 fixed penalty notices issued for vehicle defects including bad tyres. The move is part of the police's bid to cut the number of fatal collisions and get criminals off the road.

By Richard Woodall

The operation also saw 12 vehicles reported for driving offences such as having no insurance, using a mobile or not wearing a seatbelt.

A total of 41 drivers were advised about minor problems with their vehicles. A further two were arrested for failing to appear at court and two were prosecuted for not holding waste carrier licences.

Staffordshire County Council's cabinet member for communities Pat Corfield said: "Unsafe vehicles put lives at risk."

Street clean jobs scramble

A SCRAMBLE for 40 jobs at Cannock Chase Council has begun as the authority confirmed plans for its own street cleaning team.

A recruitment drive has been launched, with dozens of workers needed to tend streets, parks and cemeteries. Agency staff will be used until the positions are filled, with workers due to start in April.

It comes after contractor Fountains Group, which ran the service, went into administration. Those who lost their jobs are expected to be first in line for the new posts.

COMPETITION

Chance to pick up a penguin pass WIN

LOVE penguins? Then would you love to win a family ticket to see the new penguin cove at West Midland Safari Park?

Now that West Midland Safari Park is fully open for summer we have 40 fantastic family tickets to be won to see these delightful little penguins and a whole lot more. As well as visiting the four-mile self-drive safari with its collection of animals from all over the world, there are some marvellous attractions to visit on foot, too.

Penguin Cove, naturally, is the first to explore. Found in Discovery Trail with its variety of splendid all-weather attractions like Twilight Cave; Mark O'Shea's Reptile World, Creepy Crawlies, Seaquarium and Sea Lion Show, the all-new penguin exhibit is taking centre stage.

Glimpse

See these delightful little animals make their summertime debut in this new exhibit which incorporates a semi-submerged beach, waterfall and great viewing opportunities for visitors.

Not forgetting of course Walking with Lemurs – the largest lemur walk-through in the UK. This is the perfect way to come face to face with lemurs and their babies. This exhibit is located in natural woodland beside a centuries old lake, home to a variety of lemur.

Then, there's an African themed interactive village that comes complete with village 'huts' and an African home that allows visitors to peek behind the scenes to catch a glimpse of what life could be like in an African Village.

There are also plenty of friendly animal encounters that include the opportunity to feed some of the Somali sheep, Pygmy goats and Cameroonian sheep.

Last but not least, is Meerkat

See these delightful little animals make their summertime debut

Mayhem, located within the African Village. The exhibit has glass walls to allow the perfect viewing opportunity of these highly interesting and often amusing little animals.

There's Hippo Lakes, home to the largest family group hippo in the country and the Safari Express train ride that takes the direct route from the car park to the Amusement Area, which is packed with all kinds of fun rides and attractions. These include some rides like the Black Fly, Twister, Wild River Rafting, Rhinocoaster, Zambezi Water Splash and Venom.

Each ticket admits a family of up to four people into the park, before it closes for wintertime on November 2. Whilst amusement rides are not included as part of the prize, multi-ride wristbands and ride tickets are available to purchase on the day.

Further information may be found on the Park's website: www.wmsp.co.uk

● Prize tickets are not valid on Bank Holidays - Good Friday or Mondays and rides not included.

HOW TO ENTER

Simply answer the following question.

Which date in November does West Midland Safari Park close for winter?

a) 1st b) 2nd c) 3rd

Send answer on a postcard with your name, address and contact number to Safari Park competition, Chronicle series (editorial), 51-53 Queen Street, Wolverhampton, WV1 1ES. Closing date: Thursday, March 29. Usual rules apply. Editor's decision is final

Brick firm plans monument as Olympic flame route finalised

THOUSANDS of people are expected to line the streets as the Olympic flame passes through two South Staffordshire villages.

Council bosses have begun drawing up plans to host the Olympic Torch when it visits Newtown, near Essington, having travelled three miles along the A34 from Great Wyrley.

Brick manufacturers Ibstock have announced plans to erect a monument in Essington village centre to commemorate the occasion.

The torch will arrive in South Staffordshire at 11.15am on June 30, and organisers of the annual Great Wyrley Carnival - which alone attracts around 5,000 every year - have booked this year's event to kick off the same day after the flame has passed through the village.

South Staffs Council leader Brian Edwards welcomed the official unveiling of the route.

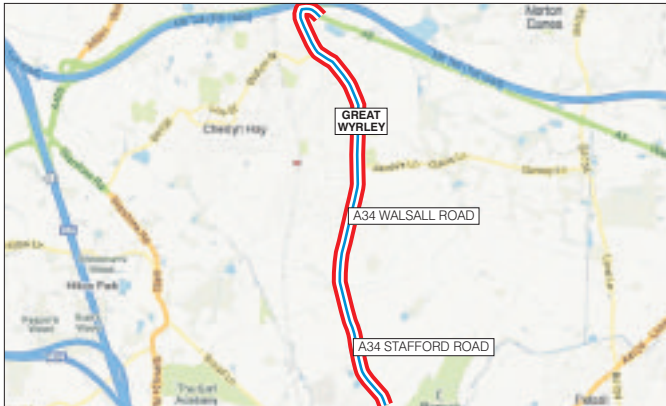

Wonderful

"The torch relay is going to be etched in the memories of local people for years to come - it's wonderful news that two of our villages are set to be part of it," he said.

Having travelled to Great Wyrley from Tamworth along the A5, the flame will head to Newtown before continuing down the A34 to Bloxwich and Leamore, where its tour of the Black Country will begin. Parish councillors in Essington have organised a fun day and mini-Olympics event to celebrate the arrival of the flame.

Councillor David Clift said free buses were planned to take people from Essington to Newtown to see the flame as it passed by.

"We are going to have a bar, we are talking to a company that provides bouncy castles and will be putting on a fun day," he said. "This is a once-in-a-lifetime thing. It's important to make sure it goes down in history."

Thousands are expected to line the streets as the torch passes through Great Wyrley

The Essington Family Fun Day will be held at Long Lane Sport and Community Centre in Long Lane, from 11.30am. Families will be able to take their own picnics to the centre and get involved with a range of games and activities. Councillor Clift said Ibstock had agreed to gift a brick monument, approximately 5ft tall and 4ft wide, to the village.

Under preliminary plans, a plaque would be displayed reading "London 2012. Olympic Torch Relay. 30th June 2012" and would feature the five Olympic rings on top.

Nicole to play part in history

A TRAINEE hairdresser will play her part in history after being named as one of the Olympic Torchbearers. Nicole Murray will carry the flame along a one-mile stretch in South Staffordshire.

Nicole, aged 18, was nominated for her work with the Children's Voice project, spearheading a campaign to raise the level of pocket money for young people in care and leading a project to get a bicycle for every child in care aged between 14 and 16.

Judges praised her for her efforts, commenting that despite being brought up in care herself from the age of eight, she has emerged as a "shining example" in the community.

Stafford College student Nicole, of Rising Brook, Stafford, will walk a one-mile stretch through South Staffordshire on June 30.

"I never expected for a single second that something like this would happen," she said.

Council leader Brian Edwards added: "Nicole has overcome adversity from a young age to make a real difference to children in care and I'm sure the people of Great Wyrley and Newtown will be welcoming her with open arms in June."

Great Wyrley parish councillor Karen Jenkins said: "It will be one of those days that people will remember for years to come."

Nicole Murray, aged 18, will be carrying the flame

HOW GOD MADE THE ENGLISH

BBC2, 8.20pm

For a long time, received wisdom suggested that God had a beard, was in His late fifties, lived in the Cotswolds and drank Earl Grey. The English have long claimed the supreme being as their own. Well, this new documentary series may or may not dissuade the masses from embracing that long-held belief. It seems the English may not have as much in common with God as they had hoped. In episode two, A Tolerant Nation?, Diarmaid MacCulloch, presenter of the award-winning series A History of Christianity, challenges the commonly held assumption that the English are historically exceptionally tolerant.

TITANIC

ITV1, 9pm

The problem with bringing a true-life story to the screen is that everybody knows how it's going to end. So what can a writer do to keep the humble viewer on the edge of their seats? Well, if you're Julian Fellowes, the answer is to make the tale more human. Now, after weeks of seeing tantalising trailers, Fellowes' lavish, four-part take on the sinking of the Titanic is here at last, and we'll be able to see for ourselves whether he's managed to breathe new life into a story we probably think we already know inside out. The opening edition introduces viewers to the wide variety of people about to board the ship in Southampton. Linus Roache, Celia Imrie and Sophie Winkleman star.

SALES AND LETTINGS

For March & April
1% NO VAT FEE for all new instructions

A local agency has strengthened its team to extend and enhance its sales and lettings services across the town and beyond.

Lorna Sumnall Properties, established six years ago, has a new residential sales manager, John Bruce, to help the business develop its sales portfolio. John, who hails from derby, knows the areas well and has considerable experience in property investment and development across the region.

The other new recruit is James Bowater, who has worked for the Westbury Homes and has wide experience in lettings and property maintenance.

As office manager, he will head up the Lorna Sumnall team of contractors who can ensure that properties are maintained or developed to the highest standards.

"We are delighted to welcome two such experienced professionals to the team," said Lorna.

"They will provide an expert service in their respective fields and help us to enhance what we believe is already an unrivalled support package for vendors, landlords and tenants."

Part of that package is a free "house doctor" service - with the company happy to check out properties for potential landlords or vendors and then provide expert advice on what, if anything, needs to be done to improve the property for sale or rental.

"We are keen to stress to potential vendors that they should act now and get their homes on the market as early in the new Year as possible," Lorna added. "We believe it will enhance their chances of success - and we are currently offering a "sale in 60 days" package because we are confident of getting results for our clients."

To find out more about the sales, lettings and property management services on offer from Lorna Sumnall Properties, call 01543 262212, or go to www.lornasumnall.co.uk

Agents are first with smarter to sell your house

A CANNOCK estate agent has become the first in the town to pilot the use of QR codes on their 'For Sale' and 'To Let' boards.

The two-dimensional Quick Response matrix codes have begun to spring up in many places, allowing smart phone users access to a particular website or offers.

Marwood Independent Property Services has now become first agent in the area to have them directly on their boards.

The agents, based in Market Hall Street, have put the codes on their boards, enabling people to scan them to see the price, more information and photos for that property.

Marwood believes this improves the experience of property hunting and offers the service to its vendors at no extra charge.

Gary Black, the Managing Director said: "We are delighted with the new boards and it offers our clients a modern method of marketing their property."

Techniques

Marwood is in partnership with John Shepherd Lettings Ltd in Birmingham who also plans on rolling out the QR codes on their boards across all of their branches.

"This is an exciting step forward for the businesses as they embrace the 21st century techniques that are now available to agents," Mr Black said.

Marwoods can also be found on Twitter and Facebook where regular updates about products and services are posted.

To follow them use the links on their website which is: www.marwoodips.com

Executive home ideal for family

LOCATED in one of Cannock's prime locations and within walking distance of the town centre this executive four-bed detached house offers spacious well designed accommodation ideally suited to a family.

The home, in Rokholt Crescent, is on the market for around £355,000 with DB Roberts & Partners. Briefly the accommodation comprises; two reception rooms, breakfast kitchen, conservatory, cloakroom, four bedrooms, two en-suites and an additional Jack and Jill ensuite between rooms three and four.

Outside the house there is a well maintained rear garden, driveway and a good sized integral garage.

For details contact the agents on 01543 469966.

Audi sets pace in battle for prized saloon market

By Brian Vertigen

THE BATTLE for sales in the premium mid-sized family saloon market is intense, with the majority of customers choosing one of three German makes - Audi, BMW and Mercedes.

These three makes accounted for 93 per cent of UK premium sales in the UK last year and the competition is getting hotter all the time. Audi is first off the starting block with a new Audi A4 saloon and Avant (estate) model and shortly BMW will introduce a new 3-Series.

While the new A4, like all new models is slightly bigger than the outgoing version, the most significant changes are in the engine range.

Audi is now putting more economical and friendly green engines into the A4 range - and there are 110 different models to choose from! Average fuel consumption overall is dropped by 11 per cent and torque has also been increased making some of the petrol engines very competitive with the diesel versions.

In all there are three petrol engines and six diesel engines. They are all turbocharged and all feature the economy start/stop and recuperation systems.

The most exciting engine, a new 1.8 litre petrol TFSI engine pushing out 170 PS was not available for test driving at the recent Audi launch. On paper it emits 21 per cent less CO₂ than its predecessor attracting a VED of £115 a year and running costs of around 43p per mile. The official combined mpg figure is around 49 but that of course is in perfect conditions.

The diesel range starts with a 134 bhp 2.0 litre four cylinder TDI unit that averages 64 mpg, with CO₂ emissions of 116 g/km placing it in band C for Vehicle Excise Duty. The rest of the range takes in 2.0 TDI 163PS, a 177 PS version and two very hot 3.0 litre TDI engines pushing out up to 245PS. For those who want a really 'hot' version to rival the BMW M3 there will be a RS 4 version in September this year.

On my road test of the various vehicles the 2 litre diesel engines were definitely the most enjoyable to drive and are so competent they almost make the 3.0 litre versions redundant. They offer plenty of power ranging from 136PS to 177PS with a choice of six-speed manual or multi-tronic gearboxes. There are Quattro four wheel drive versions offered with seven speed S tronic twin-clutch also available. Standard equipment highlights include 3-zone climate control, cruise control, Bluetooth and light and rain sensors. The new model features a new looking bonnet and front bumper, with redesigned radiator grille and headlamps.

German marques dominate the premium mid-sized family saloon trade

The cabin is excellent and one of the car's high points; it is elegant and sophisticated.

The only minus points are the pedals which are still offset to the right. Across the range the price increase for the new models is £200. Prices start at £23,625 for the SE version of the old 1.8 petrol engine. The new 1.8 litre starts at £25,240, diesels range from £26,555 up to £38,405. The Avant versions add about an extra £1,200.

The A4 comes with a standard three year/60,000 mile warranty but for £34 a month owners can have Audi Complete which covers all services, maintenance and a five year/90,000 mile warranty.

Overall the fresher look of the car will certainly attract new buyers and the A4 is significantly cheaper than the BMW 3-Series - around a saving of £1,500.

Big cat ready to pounce on sector

Walnut features and soft grain leather as standard

It has already won a handful of awards from both car enthusiasts and industry pundits: now Jaguar's new XJ flagship is 'going large' in the prestige limousine sector.

Luxury cars don't come much bigger than the stretched XJ, which gives its well-heeled owners plenty of room to stretch out in the back and enjoy its climate control, big armchairs and TV and audio toys. At 5.2 metres, the long wheelbase version is 134mm longer than the standard XJ.

The three litre diesel version provides the effortless performance you'd expect of such a car with fuel economy still on the plus side of 40mpg and a relatively low emissions figure of 184g/km, better than some family hatchbacks.

The surprise is, though, that the sweeping roofline doesn't rob you of space in the rear.

With the diesel engine's whopping 600Nm of torque and a silky smooth six-speed automatic, the long wheelbase XK waltzes along motorways in near silence. But it can also press you back in the seat with 0 to 62mph acceleration in six seconds, sweeping smoothly and comfortably along twisty A-roads thanks to its inherent roadholding abilities and a combination of adaptive electronic dynamics.

Whether you're in the back or the driving seat, the XJ is a car capable of carrying its passengers for long distances in ultimate comfort.

At £69,520 the Portfolio model tested isn't cheap but it is competitive in its class, as it does come exceptionally well equipped with technical and luxury features as standard. All the technical and safety features, and front and rear parking aid cameras, the cruise control and speed limiter and the soft grain leather seats and tinted, solar glass are among the very long list of standard equipment.

The Jaguar also stands up very well to comparisons with its principal German rivals, in terms of both performance and economy as well as comfort and standard equipment.

Prices for the long wheelbase XJ start from £58,520 for the diesel power 'Luxury' specification. There is also a petrol version powered by the 5.0 litre V8 from the XK sports car starting at £70,950 which may well prove to be the preferred choice in some of the West Midlands company's export markets.

In Memoriam

LEWIS

John

Dearest Husband

Time can't hide the sadness, like a smile can hide my tears, but memories keep you close to me despite the passing years.

Love you always John.

Your little Pat.

X X X

Loving Brother-in-law and Uncle

No matter how life changes John, no matter what we do, a special place within our hearts will always be for you.

Love, Shirley, Clive and Paul, John, Sandra and Sarah.

Recreating wartime spirit

WARTIME spirit will be alive and well when a show packed full of songs and nostalgia comes to the Lichfield Garrick.

We'll Meet Again - The Diamond Jubilee Show, recreates the music that kept Britain smiling throughout the Second World War, while also celebrating The Queen's 60th anniversary.

Live musicians will accompany a host of talented singers to help capture the music, comedy and camaraderie of the war years.

We'll Meet Again will be at the Lichfield Garrick on Tuesday March 27, starting at 2.30pm. Tickets are £12.

Book at www.lichfieldgarrick.com or on 01543 412121.

Sugar and Spice as 60s legends set to perform

The Searchers are at the Lichfield Garrick on March 29

SIXTIES legends the Searchers are performing at the Lichfield Garrick next week. In a remarkable career now spanning 50 years, the Searchers still have mass appeal.

And the quartet, which originated in Liverpool, will be at the Castle Dyke venue on Thursday, March 29, from 7.30pm.

Now featuring a line-up of John McNally, Frank Allen, Spencer James and Scott Ottaway, the Searchers have sold more than 40 million records with the likes of Sweeties For My Sweet, Needles and Pins, Don't Throw Your Love Away, Sugar and Spice, When You Walk In The Room and Love Potion No 9.

They have devised a special solo concert for UK touring, combined with anecdotes and reminiscences.

It includes all their famous hits, plus many of their original album recordings, B-sides and a selection of other collector and well-known favourites.

For tickets, which are priced at £18.50 call the box office on 01543 412121 or book online by logging onto www.lichfieldgarrick.com

REVIEWS

Young and talented cast of 17 You'll want more of this production

I Love You, You're Perfect, Now Change - Prince of Wales Centre, Cannock

THE choice of show for this season by Backstreet Theatre Company was certainly different. I Love You, You're Perfect, Now Change can be seen as 20 unrelated, stand-alone sketches, written for four players, each showing a different facet of relationships.

There is a link as Act 1 looks at the ups and downs of dating leading to a wedding, while Act 2 looks at various stages of marriage in 1960s America.

The 17-strong cast played multiple characters in this fast-moving and generally well-disciplined production. Praise must be afforded to director/choreographer, Michelle Windsor for her successful control of this talented, young cast.

The pacy show contained a number of songs covering a wide range of emotions, dispatched with style.

Full marks to musical director Gladstone Wilson, accompanied throughout by violinist Helen Jackson.

Bryan Till

Oliver! Birmingham Hippodrome

CONSIDER yourself well in if you've got tickets for Oliver in Brum.

Producer Cameron Mackintosh was a child when he sat spellbound through the original 1960 production of Lionel Bart's musical and he has lavished West End values with big cast and impressive sets on this touring version of the last London revival.

The production has found a classic Nancy in Samantha Barks and her rendition of As Long As He Needs Me was a showstopper.

Neil Morrissey is no singer but turned that to his advantage as Fagin, half-talking his lines for You've Got To Pick A Pocket Or Two.

The street urchins were adorable, young Harry Polden was strong-voiced as Oliver while Max Greisbach was the sassy Artful Dodger. Iain Fletcher was a seriously scary Bill Sykes.

Oliver will leave you wanting more. It runs April 21 with Brian Conley as Fagin and Cat Simmons as Nancy from April 3.

TIPS OF THE WEEK

When choosing a builder don't decide on price alone;

consider how easily you felt you could communicate with them when they visited to quote. This is when it's important to have visited references – consider what they had to say and the quality of work too.

When thinking of having home improvement work done, write a detailed brief and have drawings available too then ask at least three builders to come and quote. Find the builders through recommendations from friends, family or neighbours who have had similar work done by a local builder.

Late strike sets up a tie against Diamonds

Girls football
Stafford Town 0
Hednesford United U12 1
SAMANTHA FAWDON'S close-range volley a minute from time gave Hednesford a place in the League Cup final.

Hednesford were indebted to keeper Tiffany Whelan for several fine saves, but despite playing a lone striker made a number of chances.

The goal came when Fawdon met Lana Tittle's cross and netted from two yards.

Hednesford will face Lichfield Diamonds in the cup final in May.

Burntwood Phoenix 2
Chasetown U13 4
Chasetown won an exciting cup tie after trailing 1-0 at the break.

Summer Johnson equalised after the Burntwood keeper palmed away a Megan Dainty cross.

Beth Hickman got the second, converting a through ball from Lauryn Gray-Davis, with Dainty making it 3-1 from the spot after a handball.

Burntwood, a player short, pulled one back, but Hickman rounded off the scoring at the second attempt after her initial shot was saved.

Burntwood 3
Rugeley Rangers U15 5

Burntwood dominated the first half but Rugeley, with goals from Molly Corcoran and Paige Jackson, somehow contrived to go in level at the interval.

Rangers were much better in the second period, despite conceding a goal from a penalty.

They took all three points as Corcoran completed her hat-trick and Alana Hodges also scored. Katie Lowther was outstanding.

Back-foot start given a leg up

Wyreley Wanderers U10 3
Shire Oak Saints 0

WYRELEY started on the back foot with Todd Baker making some good tackles, but improved with Joe Coates shooting narrowly over.

Billy Ford cut in from the right to win a penalty which Braden O'Shea converted to put Wyreley ahead.

Coates got the second, smashing in the rebound after Shire's keeper blocked an O'Shea shot.

O'Shea rounded off the scoring with a deflected shot.

Cup final bid teeters despite pressure

Tamworth 38 Burntwood 3

BURNTWOOD'S bid to make it into their first ever Staffs Senior Cup final never really got off the ground against a good Tamworth outfit.

Much of the damage occurred in the first half of the semi-final, particularly when the visitors were down to 14 men with a player in the sin bin.

During Lloyd Shelley's absence the hosts ran up a 17-point contribution to their half-time advantage of 28-3.

The visitors conceded three costly penalties inside the first 10 minutes. The first was for lifting in the tackle and the home kicker split the uprights.

Then, in Burntwood's first attack from a line-out take by skipper Graham Shelley and driven on by prop Rob Cartwright, support players went off their feet at the breakdown to lose a promising position.

Three minutes later and the home kicker landed an easy penalty goal from in front of the posts, after Burntwood had failed to release in the tackle.

It took a good tackle on 15 minutes to deny the flying Tamworth right winger from scoring the first try of the afternoon but just four minutes later the home side moved lineout possession right then left to exploit a two on one situation and score.

A long-distance punt by Matt Wood put his side in good field position approaching the half-hour. Hesitation in the home defence allowed Burntwood to scrum under the posts but Tamworth took the ball against the head to clear their lines.

With the visitors now under pressure, flanker Lloyd Shelley was yellow-carded for an offence at a ruck and the hosts seized on their advantage. The resulting penalty was kicked to make it 14-0.

Although Wood replied with a penalty for Burntwood, the home side went further ahead from a tapped penalty which was touched down under the posts for a converted try.

Six minutes later, Tamworth turned over possession at another visitors' scrum and broke through midfield from their own 10m line.

Good handling sent the winger away for the try which was well-converted from wide out.

Burntwood needed the first score of the second period to get back into it.

Surprise

But with all the play in their own half it was no surprise when Tamworth moved further ahead with a try following a close-range line-out after 51 minutes.

A series of penalties awarded against the hosts allowed Wood to kick his side deep into home territory.

But a promising attack for the visitors ended with a dropped pass in midfield. Even when Tamworth lost their hooker to the sidelines for 10 minutes for showing dissent, it was the home side who scored during his absence, running in a try from 40 metres for the final points of the afternoon.

Burntwood pressed for a consolation try in the closing minutes but handling errors prevented them from adding to their solitary penalty goal.

Tamworth now face Burton in the final at Lichfield RFC on Sunday, May 13.

Burntwood resume league action this Saturday and face the stiffest test of all by travelling to play champions-elect Stoke-on-Trent (3pm).

The seconds are away to Willenhall thirds while the thirds host Wolverhampton thirds.

Title hopes kept alive in battle of the Titans

RUGELEY took a vital victory in a top-of-the-table Merit League clash at Brinsford Young Offenders Institute.

Rugeley needed to win to keep their title hopes alive and suffered an immediate setback when the Brinsford No.8 picked up the ball on the 22m line within the first minute to breeze through the Rugeley defence and score a try.

The visitors immediately switched Ryan Hicks to blind-side flanker to shut down the home team's mobile back row.

Rugeley then played for territory with good kicks by Luke Pagget and Jordan Wood keeping Brinsford pinned back into their own half. Nathan Homer was unlucky not to break through on several occasions.

But Rugeley got on the scoreboard when they won a lineout on the Brinsford 22m line and worked a rolling maul forwards.

Daniel Howe pounced at the back to power his way over for his side's opening try.

Confidence

The score gave Rugeley confidence and they began to pass the ball through their backs.

Nathan Homer was played into space and went over for a try.

Rugeley went in at half-time 15-5 ahead thanks to their third try, scored in the corner by Steven Salter.

The visitors maintained their form in the second period. The forwards continued their good work with Mithcell Everal and Matthew Connel turning over any opposition forward who ran the ball towards them. Hicks had by now nullified the Brinsford back row as an attacking threat.

Brinsford YOI 10
Rugeley 27

That meant Rugeley were able to build up the pressure and sent Homer over for his second try of the match.

From that point Brinsford's discipline began to crack and they conceded a series of penalties.

Eventually the referee had no option but to award a penalty try which Matthew Keys converted to stretch the visitors' lead to 22 points.

Brinsford scored a late consolation but it wasn't enough to prevent what turned out to be a comfortable Rugeley victory.

Club gives apprentice dream to teenagers

CHASETOWN FC are looking for football apprenticeship players.

The Chasetown Scholarship Scheme sees the club combine with LAW Training Ltd and Stafford College.

Students will have a full-time sporting environment at the club at either level two, which is GCSE equivalent, or level three, A-level standard.

Trainees will receive professional coaching and gain a BTEC level two or three sports qualification as well as NVQ level two exercise and fitness award and FA levels one and two coaching awards.

Chasetown Scholarship Scheme play in both the Football Conference Youth Alliance League, with the likes of Birmingham City, and the Central Conference League which features sides such as Burton Albion and Ilkeston FC.

The club wants highly-motivated and talented players aged 16 or 17 before August 31.

For more details contact scholarship manager Andy Turner by post at Chasetown Scholarship Scheme, The Scholars Ground, Church Street, Burntwood, Chasetown, WS7 3QL, via email at chasetownscholarshipscheme@yahoo.com or visit the website www.pitchero.com/clubs/chasetownscholarshipscheme

Boss left fuming as penalty is denied

Stafford Rangers 4 Chasetown 1
CHASSETOWN suffered a chastening derby defeat in the Evo-Stik Northern Premier.

Goals from Michael Carr, Luke George, old-boy Chris Morris and an own goal gave the home side the points.

A late Gary Birch strike when 3-0 down came as little consolation for the visitors. It took Stafford 51 minutes before they struck their opener, Carr's header hitting the upright and Scholars keeper Ryan Price before ending up in the net.

Four minutes later, George looped a header into the net from a flighted Ryan Brown cross with Carr making it 3-0 on 70 minutes. Birch headed home for the Scholars but any hope of a fightback was ended when Morris collected a long ball forward and fired past the Chasetown keeper.

The Scholars had matched their neighbours throughout the first half and could have won a penalty when skipper Courtney Pitt appeared to be tripped by Brown. Referee Matt Walsh hesitated before awarding a goal-kick and booking the Chasetown playmaker.

Disappointed Scholars boss Chris Brindley said: "It was a stonewall penalty. "The referee looked to give it but then looked at the linesman and ended up booking the player who had been tripped."

First-leg tie is shaded by Scholars

Chasetown Res 1 Barwell 0
PROLIFIC Karl Edwards gave Chasetown, fresh from their Reserve Division One title triumph, the advantage in this first leg of this Midland Combination Trophy semi-final.

Edwards and Tom Lowe both went close and when Lee Wright connected onto a Jonathan Gould cross, his strike cannoned against the underside of the bar before being cleared.

Edwards was clinical with his next shot to claim the only goal after 38 minutes.

Barwell came close to equalising through Nicholas More and Shaun Robinson but the Scholars stay unbeaten in all competitions.

Double provides relegation zone lift

Premier League

A DOUBLE from Tom Wright was enough for Brereton Social to beat bottom team Yates Sports and to help them climb two places and out of the relegation zone.

Yates are now in danger of relegation after only two years in the Premier League.

The Dog went top after beating Red, White & Blue 6-0. Ash Lawley got two and Richard Harris, Richard Bakewell, Dale Barrett and Paul Wassell all scored.

Division 2

Mary Rose beat Inex Wyrley 6-1 with a hat-trick from Scott Sand-land, a double by Ash Norman and one for Craig Sytlet.

Broomhill Albion beat Crystall Fountain 3-0 thanks to star striker Wayne Durnell's hat-trick. Victoria Ath and Cheslyn Hay drew 4-4.

Division 3 Cup semi-final

The Bridge knocked out AFC Littleton 4-1 with all four goals scored in the first half.

Lee Taylor missed several chances and had to settle for two goals while Dave Nicholls and Dave Higginson scored one each for The Bridge, who now play Cheslyn Hay Athletic in the final. Both Bridge teams are now in finals - that could be some party.

Division 3

Trafalgar beat leaders Cheslyn Hay Athletic 4-2. Matty Harper bagged two and John Gregory and Ben Bedet scored one each as Trafalgar climbed one place to seventh.

New Inns went up three places to second as they beat Cannock Academy 4-2. Lea Hall moved to third after they beat Brinsford 5-3. Louis Autos beat Royal Oak 5-0 with a hat-trick for Dave Arrow-smith and two for West Grey.

Division 4

Leaders Cannock & Rugeley went five points clear after they beat White Hart 4-0.

Lamb & Flag drew 4-4 with Winding Wheel. Third-placed TNT beat Lime Lane 4-2. Rugeley Rangers came from one down to beat Jolly Collier 3-1 to make it 10 wins on the trot. Player-manager Andy Wharton scored his 10th goal of the season. Ash Warrilow and Mark Lovenberry also scored.

Division 5

AFC Railway are the divisional champions. They beat second-placed Hen House 3-0 after being set on their way with a goal after 30 seconds by Dan Clarke. Gary Smith netted a fine free-kick and John McCarthy scored the other.

White Lion beat Church Hill 3-1 with a goal apiece for Saul Stocking, Dan Gallegar and Rob Blundell. Bridgtown Social were denied all three points as The Globe scored a stoppage time equaliser to make it 4-4. Wyrley Juniors beat Ath Bridge 3-1. Jubilee beat Nags Head 2-1 thanks to an own goal.

Slow start overturned

Heath Hayes 2 Highgate Utd 1
HAYES took the points in this Midland Alliance encounter, but had to come from behind to do it.

The home side struggled to put together any worthwhile moves in the opening period and Gate took an 18th-minute lead when a Lee Forey free-kick was headed home by Toby Checketts.

Hayes drew level on the half-hour as Dave Waple chased a seemingly lost cause and slotted the ball home.

The winner came on 72 minutes for Heath Hayes when Chris Geldart outstripped the visitors' defence to fire into the net.

CANNOCK hockey fifths gave a better performance but were disappointed to lose this match to Loughborough Students.

Cannock created more shots on goal in this game than the last three, but paid the price for some poor finishing. Loughborough took a first-half lead when England international David Condon found himself unopposed a few metres from goal to slot the ball home.

There was little between the teams but some fine saves from Great Britain keeper Ally McGregor saw Loughborough to the half-time interval without conceding.

The second period began with Cannock in the ascendancy.

Some fine interlinking play between Stuart Gooderham, Tom Morris and Dave Harris was rewarded when Matt Plunkett slid in at the far post to equalise.

Cannock's play was now much improved with plenty of possession and shots, but they were to pay the price for their profligacy in front of the goal. A Loughborough counter-attack led to a penalty and GB defender Richard Smith scored.

For the rest of the game Cannock pressed for the equaliser but again will be disappointed with their work in front of goal.

nation is out of Cannock's hands as they need Edgbaston fifths to drop points in their final two matches.

Injuries, illness and late arrivals did not make for the best preparation but Cannock started briskly and forced a number of chances.

Eventually, a successful press resulted in Loz Perry making a penetrating run into the opposition D for George Southall to cross to Callum Stacey who flicked home the first goal.

The second half saw Cannock push on again and despite a couple of wobbles they continued to take the game to Nottingham.

Dave Wigg, having his game of the season, orchestrated a multi-passing move that split open the Notts defence and put Callum Swinerton-Ions in space to cross to Stacey who scored his second goal.

Ten minutes from time Wigg went down with a pulled hamstring but Cannock saw out the game in comfort.

League winners top triumph with last flourish

Cannock 2 Streety 1

CANNOCK fifths, having already clinched the league title, finished a superb season with a win against Streety fourths who needed a victory of their own to have any chance of avoiding the drop.

The strong visitors asked questions of the Cannock defence. But it was Cannock who broke the deadlock when debut-maker Jake Bilson finished off at the back post for his first senior Cannock goal. His Badgers colleague Alex Kingston also impressed as the two added some youthful zest to Cannock's experienced line-up. Cannock squandered some good second-half chances and Streety made them pay with a late goal.

However, Tim Butler applied the finish to a goal-mouth scramble to give Cannock the win. They have claimed 51 of the 54 points available, scoring 105 goals and conceding only 19.

Cannock 7 Aldridge Fathom XI 2

Both the seventh and their opponents opted to start without goalkeepers. That changed after Aldridge went two up, but Cannock levelled before the break. The second half saw Cannock improve and run out comfortable winners. There were two goals apiece for Richard Sadler and Ozzy Harris and single strikes for Alan Craddock, Mike Tucker and Derek Prince.

Cannock Ladies 2 Stafford Ladies 1

Cannock Ladies thirds returned to winning ways after their first defeat in nine games the previous week.

An Ellie Bradbury double saw Cannock win by the odd goal but the margin did not reflect Cannock's superiority.

Good play but goal proves to be elusive

Causeway United 3
Heath Hayes 0

DESPITE playing their best football for some time in the first half of this Midland Alliance fixture, Hayes were unable to get the goal that they play deserved.

Chris Geldart had strong claims for a penalty turned down and Dominic Colson went close twice.

The second half on Tuesday was a different story. Causeway showed why they are fourth in the table, producing a slick pacy display that at times threatened to run riot. The damage was done in a 15-minute spell in the first half. A fine run from Sam Beasley set up Matt Gardner for the first, although there was a hint of offside.

Moments later Scot Stevenson powered home a second and it took a series of excellent saves from veteran Hayes keeper Adam Bradlock to deny the home side further goals. Gardner then got his side's third after his initial effort was blocked magnificently by Bradlock.

To their credit Hayes weathered the storm and came back so strongly that for a while it looked as if a comeback was on the cards. Geldart again went close and Dave Waple somehow hit the outside of the post when it seemed easier.

Girls on the lookout for new players

HEDNESFORD United Girls FC are recruiting players in school years three and four for their New Academy. Girls of all abilities are welcome at a club that has two established age groups playing in the South Staffs Young Women's League.

The club are looking for players for next season's under-10s.

Training is held on Wednesday evenings and matches will be played on Saturday afternoons.

Hednesford United Girls FC is an FA Charter Standard Club with FA qualified, fully CRB checked coaches and managers.

Training will start on Wednesday, April 4 at Chads Moor Junior School, Burns Street, from 6-7pm. Another session will be held on a Friday, starting April 6 at King George's Park, Bloxwich, again from 6-7pm.

More details are available from Derek Cox on 07769 837540.

Slow start just so costly for Pitmen

Hednesford Town 1 FC United of Manchester 2

HEDNESFORD boss Rob Smith was left to rue a costly slow start to this clash.

His men next face resurgent Chorley, third in the Evo-Stik Northern Premier – and Smith expects better.

"It is on the pitch next week that we need to cut out the schoolboy errors and get us in a big game," he said.

"The pressure is now on. We are not playing well and have to get results and quickly. I'm confident that will start against Chorley."

Sleepy defending from two set-pieces gave FC United of Manchester an unassailable advantage. Even when the Pitmen did go on to dominate the second half, chances of a revival were killed off by a red card for Mark Beesley – and Smith's own dismissal from the dug-out.

Hednesford will feel frustrated at allowing first Adam Jones to head unmarked into the net from a corner on three minutes and then Lee Neville to flick a header inside the far post 10 minutes later.

A triple substitution at half-time gave the home side far better impetus as Beesley, Gary Hay and Ben Jevons entered the fray. The substitutions had an immediate effect as Jevons saw his header palmed away by James Spencer, then from the resulting corner he headed over when well placed.

The Pitmen duly made their early second-half dominance tell with Jermaine Johnson heading beyond Spencer from a Chris Clements corner on 58 minutes.

The closest the Pitmen came to an equaliser was a 74th-minute Clements free-kick that flashed over while Chris Shaw had to hack the ball clear at the other end.

Hednesford had a solid claim for a handball in the penalty area turned down before Beesley saw red for an alleged stamp picked up by the linesman on 85 minutes. Boss Smith was then also ordered from the dug-out for his protestations over the decision.

With the Pitmen now in fourth place, the four remaining home matches could not be more important.

Hednesford: Crane, Haynes, Shaw, Dunkley, Johnson, Denny, Osborne (Jevons HT), Clements, Wellecome (Hay HT), Landell, Durrell (Beesley 45). Subs not used: Blakeman, Craven,

FC United: Spencer, Jacobs, Neville, Cottrell, Jones, Stones, Mulholland (Platt 61), Volfenden (Battersby 89), Norton, Scott, Johnson (Grimshaw 87). Subs not used: Armstrong, Cheetham, Attendance: 1,228.

Handball team land regional triumph

HANDBALL stars from a Cannock school have won their regional championship.

The Cardinal Griffin under-16 side, representing Staffordshire, triumphed in the Warrington tournament.

The team, who only began playing 16 months ago, won all their matches beating Merseyside 14-8, Bedfordshire 14-4, Greater Manchester 11-10 and favourites Cheshire 8-4.

In the opening game against Merseyside, Lydia Ashton impressed with five goals. The second game, against Bedfordshire, saw Megan Shirley score several goals and gave 12-year-olds Olivia Gonzalez and Hannah Talbot an extended run.

Staffordshire squeaked home by one goal against Greater Manchester, skipper Harriet Richards netting regularly to demonstrate why she has been called up for Great Britain under-20 training.

The final game against favourites and defending champions Cheshire was a test. But with Rachel Biddle playing as an advanced defender and Kate Lawton outstanding in goal, the Cannock team were able to build attacks consistently and took the win.

Club is on hunt for apprentices

CANNOCK FC are looking for teenage footballers for their apprenticeship scheme.

Students will combine football with studies to gain a variety of qualifications.

And on the football side they can progress through the club – eight trainees have turned out for the first team in the last three years.

HISTORY MADE AS HENDRIE SIGNS UP

CHASETOWN fielded a full England international for the first time in the club's history this week after former Villa midfielder Lee Hendrie joined the Scholars.

Hendrie has signed non-contract forms until the end of the season, after leaving a similar deal with Blue Square Premier outfit Kidderminster Harriers.

The 34-year-old made his debut and played the full 90 minutes in Tuesday's 1-1 draw at home to Matlock, his first-ever appearance in the Evo-Stik Northern Premier League.

The Scholars are refusing to disclose the player's wage but it's believed to be at least on a par with the eight contracted players already at the club.

Harriers also counted Hendrie as one of the highest-paid on their books and, responding to Chasetown's approach, agreed to waive the seven-day rule.

Hendrie, who won his only cap in November 1998 against the Czech Republic, became the first former full England international to pull on a shirt for the Scholars.

The only historical parallel is Jake Sedgemore, who won five caps for the England C semi-professional team in 2004 and had a spell with the Scholars last year.

With Hendrie on board, a new-look and improved Chasetown side fought hard for a point against Matlock at the Scholars Ground.

The Scholars, who are just two points clear of the relegation places, fell behind but hit back to equalise through Gary Birch.

They also welcomed back goalkeeper Lee Evans to the fold after he rejoined the club from Romulus.

The game started in scrappy fashion with no clear chances at first,

by Craig Birch

Hendrie firing high and wide in the seventh minute before visiting goalkeeper Jon Kennedy punched away a corner from the right.

Matlock lost right-back Micky Harcourt to injury after only 10 minutes, but the visitors rallied and came close to taking the lead in the 20th minute, Mark Branch clearing Liam Wilkin's back-heel off the line.

The ball stayed in the area, however, and Wilkin made amends seconds later with a header to put the Gladiators ahead.

The host's persistence paid off on 61 minutes when Courtney Pitt struck the near post with Kennedy parrying the rebound from Dean Perrow.

But it was third time lucky for the Scholars, as Birch was on hand to tap home the equaliser.

Birch could have made it a double four minutes later but mis-kicked Branch's cross. Richard Teesdale headed a corner wide, while Adam Yates's 40-yard screamer flew wide for Matlock on 77 minutes.
